CHAPTER 173.

AN ACT to amend chapter 158 of the statutes of 1898, relating to garnishment.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Bond for discharge of garnishee. SECTION 1. Chapter 158 of the statutes of 1898 is hereby amended by adding a new section to be known as section 3721a which shall read as follows: 3721a. At any time after the service of a summons in garnishment, either before or after judgment in the main action, the principal defendant may, if he desire, furnish to and file with the justice a bond in double the amount of plaintiff's claim with sufficient surety or sureties who shall justify in the amount of the bond to be approved by him, conditioned that the defendant will pay to the plaintiff the amount of any final judgment obtained by the plaintiff against the defendant in said action in said court or in any court to which the same may be removed on appeal, and also the accrued costs of said garnishee action up to the time of filing said bond, and said garnishee may be then discharged from all further liability as garnishee therein.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved May 8, 1905.
