

No. 201, S.]

[Published May 12, 1915.]

CHAPTER 67.

AN ACT to amend section 1416—1 of the statutes, providing for the reporting of dangerous communicable diseases.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1416—1 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 1416—1. It shall be the duty of every physician to report to the department of health in every town, incorporated village or city, in writing, within twenty-four hours, the full name, age and address of every person treated, visited or known by such physician to be suffering from any one of the infectious or contagious diseases following, to wit: Measles, small-pox, diphtheria (membraneous croup), scarlet fever (scarlatina), typhoid fever, tuberculosis (of any organ), rubella (rotheln), chicken pox, typhus fever, plague, erysipelas, Asiatic cholera, whooping cough, cerebrospinal meningitis, yellow fever, acute anterior poliomyelitis, trachoma, and ophthalmia neonatorum; and it shall be the duty of every person, owner, agent, manager, principal or superintendent of any public or private institution or dispensary, hotel, boarding or lodging house, in any such town, incorporated village or city, to make a report, in like manner and form, of any inmate, occupant or boarder suffering from any of the said infectious or contagious diseases. It shall also be the duty of every physician to report by number all cases of syphilis and gonorrhoea occurring in his practice to the state board of health at such time and in such manner as the state board of health may direct.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 7, 1915.

No. 244, S.]

[Published May 12, 1915.]

CHAPTER 68.

AN ACT to amend section 959—145, to repeal section 959—146, and to create a new section of the statutes to be numbered 959—146, relating to a board of public land commissioners in cities.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 959—145 of the statutes is amended to read: Section 959—145. Any city of this state, whether organized under general or special charter, is hereby empowered to create by ordinance of its common council a board of public land commissioners consisting of * * * the commissioner of public works, the city engineer, and three citizens, appointed and possessed of the powers as hereinafter provided, for the purpose of converting streets and highways designated by the common council of such city into parkways or boulevards.

SECTION 2. Section 959—146 of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 3. There is added to the statutes a new section to be numbered and to read: Section 959—146. 1. Such resident commissioners shall be appointed by the mayor, subject to the approval of the common council, within sixty days after the creation of such board by ordinance as aforesaid. In all cities where there is at the present time a public land commission created pursuant to section 959—145, of the statutes, the duties of said commission are hereby terminated.

2. Within sixty days after the passage of this act, the mayor of such city shall appoint a new commission to consist of the commissioner of public works, the city engineer and three resident members; which board shall elect from its members a president and a secretary. In appointing the first board created under the provisions of this section, the mayor shall designate the length of term of each commissioner; one member to serve until the next ensuing first day of January after his appointment; one member to serve until the second ensuing first day of January after his appointment; one member to serve until the third ensuing first day of January after his appointment; and the commissioner of public works and the city engineer shall serve on said board during their respective terms of office; and thereafter on or before the first day of January of each year, the mayor shall appoint one resident commissioner to serve for a term of three years and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

3. Within one month after any vacancy by death, resignation, or otherwise, the mayor shall appoint some person to fill such vacant office for the unexpired term. Each commissioner shall hold his office until the expiration of the term for which he is appointed and until his successor is appointed and qualified. All appointments by the mayor on this board, excepting the commissioner of public works and the city engineer, shall be subject to the approval of the common council.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 7, 1915.