CHAPTER 544

AN ACT to amend Section 392q of the statutes, relating to study course of the Wisconsin Mining School.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 392q of the statutes is amended to read: Section 392q. The course of instruction for students who have enrolled prior to July 1, 1917, shall be two years in length and for students who enroll after July 1, 1917, shall be three years in length and shall embrace geology, mineralogy, chemistry, assaying, mining and mining surveying and such other branches of practical and theoretical knowledge as will, in the opinion of the board, conduce to the end of enabling students of said school to obtain a knowledge of the science, art and practice of mining and the application of machinery thereto. The dean of the college of engineering of the University of Wisconsin shall be consulted concerning the course of study, and the same and all modifications thereof shall be approved by him. No student who shall have been a resident of the state for one year next preceding his admission shall be required to pay * * * fees or other charges for tuition or other purposes in said school, except for the cost price of materials actually consumed by such student in pursuit of any studies. The board may prescribe rates for tuition for any student who shall not have been a resident as aforesaid, which shall not be less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars per year.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 29, 1917.
