

SECTION 2. Paragraph (b) of subsection (16) of section 29.18 of the statutes is amended to read: (29.18) (16) * * * There shall be no open season for Mongolian, Chinese, ring-neck or English pheasants, quails, bobwhites, or Hungarian partridges, except that in the towns of Oconomowoc, Summit, Ottawa and Mukwonago, in Waukesha county, and in the towns of Ixonia, Sullivan and Concord in Jefferson county, there shall be an open season for Hungarian partridges for five consecutive days, commencing on the first Tuesday of September and closing on Saturday following, with a bag limit of three birds a day. In said towns there shall also be an open season for English pheasants as follows: The first, second, third, fourth and fifth Mondays of October, with a bag limit of two male or cock birds a day.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved July 21, 1927.

No. 622, A.]

[Published July 23, 1927.

CHAPTER 431.

AN ACT to create subsection (6) of section 32.10 of the statutes, relating to eminent domain.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new subsection is added to section 32.10 of the statutes to read: (32.10) (6) In assessing benefits for lands acquired, the commissioners shall take into account in any assessment of damages and benefits under subsection (2), the reasonable value of any land which the petitioner may previously have acquired by direct purchase, but the assessment of benefits therefor shall in no case exceed the purchase price. In assessing benefits against the land of any owner who has given or dedicated other land, the commissioners shall take into account an amount not to exceed the reasonable value of the land so given or dedicated.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved July 21, 1927.