CHAPTER 53.

AN ACT conferring additional jurisdiction on the first special municipal court of Rusk county, and relating to proceedings and practice thereof.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The first special municipal court for Rusk county shall, within its territorial jurisdiction, have jurisdiction concurrent with the county court of said county, over applications for the commitment of dependent children to the state public school at Sparta. In the exercise of such jurisdiction and commitment, the processes and procedure of the court shall be governed by the statutes on the same subject relating to county courts.

SECTION 2. In addition to the jurisdiction granted to said court by chapter 254 of the statutes, and chapter 221 of the laws of 1921, said court shall have all the powers, issue all writs, orders and processes, and the right to have the same served throughout the state, and the rules of pleading and practice applicable to the circuit court shall be followed in the trial of all actions for foreclosure of mortgages, land contracts, mechanic's and other liens, and actions to quiet title, for partition, and to remove clouds from the titles to real estate in which the amount claimed, or the value of the property involved, does not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars, and in all other actions and special proceedings in law and equity, where the amount claimed is over five hundred dollars and not to exceed three thousand dollars after deducting all payments and offsets. In case of the change of venue in any such action it shall be to the circuit court of the county having jurisdiction thereof.

SECTION 3. In case of sickness, absence or temporary disability of the judge of said court, he may, by an order in writing to be filed in said court, appoint any of the persons specified in section 254.08, and in addition, may appoint any circuit court commissioner of said county, who shall be an attorney at law admitted to practice in the courts of record in the state of Wisconsin, to discharge the duties of said judge during such sickness, absence or disability, and who shall have the powers of such judge while administering such office.

SECTION 4. The said municipal court shall have jurisdiction equal to and concurrent with the circuit court of Rusk county in all cases of crimes and misdemeanors arising in said county for which the highest penalty provided by law shall not exceed five years imprisonment. In any criminal case, appeal shall be as specified in section 254.10 of the statutes.

SECTION 5. The said municipal court is vested with and shall have jurisdiction, authority, powers and rights granted by law to the county judge in cases of persons committed for trial for an offense for which the highest penalty provided by law shall not exceed five years imprisonment. In the exercise of jurisdiction in cases of persons committed for trial, the processes and procedure of the court shall be governed by the statutes relating to county courts.

SECTION 6. The said municipal court shall have jurisdiction equal to and concurrent with the circuit court of Rusk county of all actions to affirm or annul a marriage or for divorce from the bonds of matrimony, or from bed and board, and authority to do all acts and things necessary and proper in such actions and to carry its orders and judgments into execution as prescribed in chapter 247 of the statutes. In case of the change of venue in any such action it shall be to the circuit court of the county having jurisdiction thereof.

SECTION 7. In all cases in said court in which circuit court procedure is applicable, the following practice shall be followed: After issue joined in any civil action or proceeding, or after information filed in any criminal action pending in said court, any party may, upon five days' notice to the other party or parties and without any notice of trial having been previously served, apply to the said court or judge thereof, to set down such case for trial on a particular day, and the court or judge shall upon the hearing of such application, if it be reasonably possible, fix a definite time for such trial which shall not be less than ten nor more than thirty days from the time of the hearing of such application, unless for cause it shall be otherwise ordered.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 22, 1927.
