

Wisconsin Session Laws, 1929

No. 8, S.]

[Published January 25, 1929.

CHAPTER 1.

AN ACT relating to compensation of legislative employes of the regular session of 1929, and making appropriations.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is allotted from the appropriation made for the legislature by section 20.01 of the statutes, for the payment of the salaries of legislative employes of the regular session of 1929:

(1) To subordinate clerks of the senate, as follows:

(a) One general clerk, six dollars per day.

(b) One journal clerk, six dollars per day.

(c) One assistant journal clerk, six dollars per day.

(d) One record clerk, six dollars per day.

(e) One assistant record clerk, six dollars per day.

(f) One index clerk, who shall be an expert at card indexing, and who shall prepare the indices, six dollars per day.

(g) One engrossing clerk, who shall be an expert stenographer and typewriter, to have charge of the engrossing room, six dollars per day.

(h) Ten clerks, who shall be expert in stenography and type-writing, to perform general duties for members and committees, each six dollars per day.

(i) Two clerks, who shall be expert proof readers to serve as revision and enrolling clerks, each six dollars per day.

(j) Three clerks, who shall be expert in the use of the typewriter, to engross bills, each five dollars per day.

(k) Two mailing clerks, five dollars per day.

(2) To subordinate clerks of the assembly, the same as provided for the senate, and in addition thereto:

(a) One clerk for the joint committee on finance, who shall be a stenographer and who shall have a general knowledge of accounts, six dollars per day.

(b) One general clerk, six dollars per day.

(c) Three clerks, who shall be expert in stenography and typewriting, to engross bills and perform general clerical work for members, each six dollars per day.

(d) One clerk, who shall be expert in the use of the typewriter, to engross bills, five dollars per day.

(e) One voting machine operator who shall be expert in the operation of a photostat, seven dollars per day.

(3) To subordinates of the sergeant at arms of the senate, as follows:

(a) One assistant sergeant at arms, six dollars per day.

(b) One postmaster, five dollars per day.

(c) Two custodians of the document room, who shall perform such duties as may be required by the rules of the body, five dollars per day.

(d) One policeman, four dollars per day.

(e) One night watchman, four dollars per day.

(f) Two night laborers, each three dollars and fifty cents per day.

(g) Twelve messengers, each three dollars per day.

(h) One gallery attendant, four dollars per day.

(4) To subordinates of the sergeant at arms of the assembly, the same as provided for the senate, and in addition thereto:

(a) One post-office messenger, who shall carry and deliver mail for both houses, three dollars and fifty cents per day.

(b) Five messengers, each three dollars per day.

(c) One cloakroom attendant, four dollars per day.

(d) One gallery attendant, four dollars per day.

(5) To clerks detailed for services after the close of the session, as provided in subsection (6) of section 13.14; not exceeding six dollars per day, and not exceeding an aggregate of three hundred dollars for the assembly and two hundred dollars for the senate.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved January 24, 1929.

No. 28, A.]

[Published February 1, 1929.]

CHAPTER 2.

AN ACT relating to the election and term of office of justice of the peace and constable in all cities of the first class.