CHAPTER 234.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money named therein to P.

Walter Peterson, a member of the state highway commission, to reimburse him for expenses in a suit brought by George Staudenmeyer.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is appropriated from the general fund to P. Walter Peterson, a member of the state highway commission, the sum of three hundred and thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents to reimburse said P. Walter Peterson for attorney's fees and expenses incurred by him in defending a suit brought by George Staudenmeyer, which was decided in favor of the said P. Walter Peterson and involved his right to serve as a member of the highway commission.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
