CHAPTER 489.

AN ACT to repeal paragraphs (c), (g) and (h) of subsection (2) and paragraph (i) of subsection (6); to amend the introductory paragraph of subsection (1), paragraphs (a) and (i) of subsection (2), subsection (5), paragraphs (b) and (e) of subsection (6) and subsections (9), (10) and (12); and to create paragraphs (h) and (l) of subsection (6) and subsection (7), all of section 20.60 of the statutes, relating to the department of agriculture and making an appropriation.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Paragraphs (c), (g) and (h) of subsection (2) and paragraph (i) of subsection (6) of section 20.60 of the statutes are repealed.

SECTION 2. The introductory paragraph of subsection (1), paragraphs (a) and (i) of subsection (2), subsection (5), paragraphs (b) and (e) of subsection (6) and subsections (9),

(10) and (12) of section 20.60 of the statutes are amended to read: (20.60) (1) (Introductory paragraph) Annually, beginning July 1, * * * 1929, one hundred * * * twenty-two thousand dollars, for administration of said department, and all its bureaus, branches and divisions. Of this there is allotted:

(2) (a) On July 1, * * * 1929, * * * seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, and * * * on July 1, * * * 1930, * * * seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, for the purposes of carrying on the work of bovine tuberculosis eradication, and the payment of indemnities on animals condemned and slaughtered according to the provisions of chapter 94 of the statutes, under the area test plan, the accredited herd plan, and the local testing plan by established, practicing veterinarians, whose work is approved by the department of agriculture; provided that, with the approval of the governor, so much of the appropriation for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1930, as may be necessary, may be anticipated and used for the purposes herein set forth during the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1929. The entire appropriation shall be devoted to the payment of administrative cost and indemnities on animals condemned and slaughtered under the area test plan, the accredited herd plan, and the local testing plan, in such proportions as the department of agriculture and the live stock sanitary board may deem advisable; provided, that not to exceed three hundred thousand dollars may be used in any one year for the payment of indemnities on animals condemned and slaughtered by order of the state department of agriculture or the live stock sanitary board, but which are not included under the so-called area test plan or accredited herd plan of testing for bovine tuberculosis, and, provided, further, that no funds appropriated in its section shall be expended for the payment of indemnities unless the animal or animals slaughtered shall have been tested in accordance with the regulations or permits of the state live stock sanitary board.

(i) On July 1, * * * 1929, five thousand dollars, and on July 1, * * * 1930, five thousand dollars of the appropriation provided for in paragraph (a) of this subsection for the payment of indemnities on animals condemned and slaughtered for Johnnes disease, on the same basis and in the same manner as is provided in chapter 94 of the statutes for animals condemned and slaughtered for bovine tuberculosis.

(5) Annually, beginning July 1, * * * 1929, two thousand five hundred dollars, for the control of black stem rust of grains by means of barberry eradication and for the control of white pine blister rust; provided, that the governor and commissioner of agriculture are authorized to discontinue any or all of the work provided for under this subsection, and in the event of such discontinuance, the appropriation herein made shall lapse.

(6) (b) On July 1, 1927, ninety thousand dollars, and on July 1, 1928, twenty thousand dollars, for equipment, permanent property and improvements, except the purchase of land. Of the amount appropriated on July 1, 1927, * * * twenty-seven thousand dollars shall be used for no other purpose than for concrete work, and additions and equipment for the hog house.

(e) On July 1, * * * 1929, thirty thousand dollars, and on July 1, * * * 1930, thirty thousand dollars, for property repairs and maintenance.

(9) For the fiscal year beginning July 1, * * * 1929, six thousand dollars, and for the fiscal year beginning July 1, * * * 1930, six thousand dollars, for the manufacture or purchase and distribution of tuberculin.

(10) For the fiscal year beginning July 1, * * * 1929, five thousand dollars, and for the fiscal year beginning July 1, * * * 1930, five thousand dollars, to carry out the provisions of section 175.02.

(12) (a) On July 1, * * * 1929, * * * the balance in this appropriation on June 30, 1929, and twelve thousand dollars for preventing the introduction or dissemination of, eradicating and controlling the European corn borer. Any part of this appropriation may be expended outside of this state which in the judgment of the commissioner of agriculture is necessary to accomplish the purposes for which this appropriation is made.

(b) For the biennial period beginning July 1, * * * 1929, not to exceed * * * twenty-five thousand dollars to carry out the provisions of subsections (2), (3) and (4) of section 96.39; such money to be expended only in the event of the introduction of the European corn borer into this state and upon the written approval of the governor.

SECTION 3. Two new paragraphs are added to subsection (6) and a new subsection is added to section 20.60 of the statutes to read: (20.60) (6) (h) On July 1, 1929, forty-nine thousand dollars, and on July 1, 1930, twenty-three thousand dollars. Of the amount appropriated on July 1, 1929, twenty thousand dollars shall be used for no other purpose than the construction of an addition to the horticultural building, and six thousand dollars for the payment of the state's portion of the cost of sidewalks on Greenfield Avenue and of pavement on Seventy-Seventh street.

(1) On July 1, 1929, not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars for the purchase of the dance hall and the surrender of all rights of the lessee under his lease from the state. Before any part of this appropriation may be used, the state chief engineer shall appraise the property and no more shall be paid therefor than its value as thus appraised.

(7) On July 1, 1929, twelve thousand five hundred dollars, and on July 1, 1930, twelve thousand five hundred dollars, for land economic inventories and other surveys.

SECTION 4. The unexpended and unencumbered portion of the appropriation made in 1927 for the construction and equipment of boys' and girls' dormitories on the state fair grounds which is repealed by the amendment to paragraph (b) of subsection (6) of section 20.60 in SECTION 2 of this act, shall upon passage and publication of this act revert to the general fund.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved September 11, 1929.
