

tinuously published in such city and county for at least two years immediately before the date of such notice, advertisement, or report, providing that the two years' requirement shall not apply to papers in existence at the time of the passage of this act. A newspaper in the contemplation of this section is a publication appearing at regular intervals, which shall be at least once a week, containing reports of happenings of recent occurrence of a varied character, such as political, social, moral and religious subjects, and designed for the information of the general reader. Such definition shall include a daily newspaper published in a county having a population of five hundred thousand or more, devoted principally to business news and publishing of records, which has been designated by the courts of record of said county for publication of legal notices for a period of six years or more immediately prior to January 1st, 1931.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 22, 1931.

No. 200, A.]

[Published May 23, 1931.

CHAPTER 144.

AN ACT to create subsection (13) of section 14.53 of the statutes, relating to the prosecution of Indian claims.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new subsection is added to section 14.53 of the statutes to read: (14.53) (13) The attorney-general shall designate an assistant attorney-general to investigate and prosecute to a conclusion all legitimate claims against the federal government of Indians residing in Wisconsin. If such investigation shall reveal the need for any changes either in state or federal legislation to more adequately safeguard the interests of the Wisconsin Indians, the attorney-general shall bring such need to the attention of the legislature and at the conclusion of his duties hereunder shall make a complete report to the legislature.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved May 21, 1931.