

Mrs. Meyer never held public office but took an active part in many political campaigns. Falsely accused of disloyalty during the World War, her experiences drew her close to that great Wisconsin citizen—Robert M. La Follette—who also was falsely accused by profiteers and super-patriots. She was a staunch progressive who labored ceaselessly for the principles in which she believed. In 1924 and again in 1926, 1928, and 1930, she was selected secretary of the Republican state central committee and filled this position with marked ability.

To all those who knew Mrs. Meyer her death came as a great shock. She was ever faithful to every trust, and her death is a distinct loss to the state and to her community. Now, therefore, be it Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That as a mark of respect in memory of Mrs. Rose Litscher Meyer this resolution be spread upon the journals of both houses of the legislature and that a copy thereof, duly attested, be forwarded to her family.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Relating to the life and public service of Honorable

William A. Kay.

The members of this legislature have learned with deep regret of the sudden death of their fellow member, Honorable William A. Kay, at the Wisconsin General Hospital, at Madison, November 27th, 1931.

Mr. Kay was born February 22, 1864, in the town of Martell, Pierce county, Wisconsin. He received his education in the public schools and afterwards took up farming, specializing in the raising of fine cattle. Early in life he became interested in the political affairs of his community. For thirty-seven years he was the school district treasurer. He was also supervisor and assessor of his town and was chairman of his town board for seven terms. In 1906 he was first elected to the assembly as the representative from Pierce county. He also served in the 1909, 1911, 1915 and 1931 sessions. He was a lifelong Republican and always actively supported forward looking legislation. His career as a citizen, public official and state legislator deserves commendation for its unassuming but effective services in the interest of Pierce county and the state of Wisconsin; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly, the Senate concurring, That as an evidence of respect and appreciation of services well done, there be entered upon the journals of both houses this memorial to William A. Kay, and be it further

Resolved, That a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution be transmitted to the family of the deceased, attested by the signatures of the speaker and chief clerk of the assembly and the president and chief clerk of the senate.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Relating to the public service and death of Charles Mulberger.

Charles Mulberger died on November 16, 1931. He was born in Watertown, Wisconsin, November 1, 1873. He was educated in the public schools and high school and in 1894 was graduated from the Law School of the University of Wisconsin. He was manager of the Globe Milling Company for many years and was an alderman of Watertown for several terms. He also served on the fire and police commission of that city, and was its mayor from 1915 to 1921. He was elected to the Wisconsin Senate in 1914 and reelected in 1918, where he served with distinction.

In the death of Senator Mulberger his community has lost a useful and respected citizen.

Therefore, as a mark of respect to his memory, by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, be it

Resolved, That the foregoing resolution be spread upon the journal of each house, and that a copy thereof, properly signed
