CHAPTER 235.

AN ACT directing the state highway commission to make certain changes in the state trunk highway system.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The state highway commission is directed, as soon as funds are available, to surface with concrete state trunk highway number 53 from Osseo to Whitehall in Trempealeau county, a distance of fifteen miles, more or less, and to add to the state trunk highway system a highway extending from Prairie du Chien to Lynxville in Crawford county, following substantially the course of what is known and designated as county trunk highway F, also a highway from Lynxville or vicinity northeasterly along the most practicable route to a connection with the state trunk system at a point approximately three and one-half miles southwest of Eastman. Said commission is also directed to remove from the state trunk highway system that portion of a highway marked state trunk highway number 35 extending from Lynxville in said county to state trunk highway number 61, also that part of said trunk highway number 61 between Prairie du Chien and a junction with the state trunk highway, at a point about three and one-half miles southwest of Eastman.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 236.

AN ACT to repeal sections 200.27 and 203.47, and to amend paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section 200.13, section 201.08, subsection (1) of section 201.385, subsection (1) of section 201.44, subsection (5) of section 203.24 and section 206.03 of the statutes, relating to miscellaneous amendments of insurance laws.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 200.27 and 203.47 of the statutes are repealed.

SECTION 2. Paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section 200.13, section 201.08, subsection (1) of section 201.385, subsection (1) of section 201.44, subsection (5) of section 203.24 and section 206.03 of the statutes are amended to read: (200.13) (1)

(d) For every * * * copy of a paper filed in his office, ten cents per folio;

201.08 Every insurance corporation and every mutual benefit society shall adopt by-laws and prescribe the manner in which the same may be amended. A copy of such by-laws and of any amendments thereto, accompanied by the certificate of the president and secretary stating that the same have been duly adopted and that such copy is true and complete, shall be filed with the commissioner of insurance within thirty days after such adoption, and in case of failure so to do each shall forfeit twenty-five dollars.

(201.385) (1) Whenever such insurers shall have appointed the commissioner of insurance as their true and lawful attorney or shall be required to do so by any law of this state, service upon such attorney shall be deemed sufficient service for all purposes upon the principal, and shall be as effectual for all purposes as though made upon a corporation or other insurer existing under the laws of this state. The service of such process shall be made by leaving duplicate copies thereof in the hands or office of the commissioner of insurance and paying to him for the use of the state a fee of two dollars for each company. A certificate by the commissioner of insurance showing such service and attached to the original or a third copy of such process presented to him for that purpose shall be sufficient evidence thereof.

(201.44) (1) No policy of insurance shall be solicited, issued or delivered in this state by any company, except through an agent who shall be a resident of this state and hold a certificate of authority under section 209.04, for the kind of insurance effected by such policy.

(203.24) (5) Upon the completion of each adjustment of loss or damage by fire a report thereof upon a form prescribed by the commissioner of insurance shall be made and signed by each adjuster participating therein and by the insured or someone authorized thereto on his behalf and shall be filed with the chief of the fire department as deputy fire marshal or if none, then with the state fire marshal. * * *

206.03 Any life insurance company incorporated under the laws of this state, may engage in the business of personal, accident and health insurance, as its articles of association shall provide, and may issue such contracts either independently of or in conjunction with its life or endowment policies; provided, that no accident, health or disability benefits except total and permanent disability benefits may be incorporated in its life or endowment policies and that when the total and permanent disability benefits are incorporated in, or contained in contracts issued in conjunction with its life or endowment policies and when accidental death benefits are contained in separate and distinct contracts issued in conjunction with such policies and valued under the provisions of subsection (3) of section 206.24, paragraph (g) of subsection (1) of section 206.20 and section * * * 204.31, except paragraph (2) of subsection (12), shall not apply. Any foreign life insurance company, by complying with this section, may also be licensed to transact such business, if authorized so to do by its charter or articles of organization and by the state in which it is incorporated.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 9, 1933.
