CHAPTER 332.

AN ACT to amend section 111.09 of the statutes, relating to cold storage food.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 111.09 of the statutes is amended to read: 111.09 (1) It shall be unlawful to sell, or offer for sale, any article of food which has been held for a period of forty days or over in cold storage either within or without the state, except as and for "cold storage * * * products," or as and of a specified grade and without notifying persons purchasing, or intending to purchase the same, that it has been so held or without marking each package, parcel or container in which cold storage products are offered for sale with the true and correct grade fixed for articles of food as provided for in section 99.10. When articles of food which have been held in cold storage for a period of forty days or over are displayed for sale in any store or other place where such articles are sold, a placard, plainly and conspicuously marked "cold storage * * * products" shall be displayed on the bulk mass of said articles of food, or a placard shall be displayed plainly and conspicuously marked with the correct grade of the articles of food offered for sale, and if articles of food which have been held in cold storage for a period of forty days or more are sold in any store or other place but not exposed to view, a placard setting forth the kind of * * * products and the fact that they are cold storage shall be conspicuously displayed in the place of sale, unless the cold storage products offered for sale and sold are conspicuously marked with the correct grade of the articles of food offered for sale and sold as and of their proper grade. It shall be unlawful to sell, offer for sale, represent or advertise as fresh any article of food which has been held in cold storage for a period of forty days or over. It shall be unlawful to sell or to offer for sale, to display, advertise, or to represent in any manner whatsoever for the purpose of selling, any * * * products other than cold storage that have been held for a period of forty days or over, either within or without the state, without notifying the persons purchasing or intending to purchase the same, that they are held * * * products, unless said held products offered for sale or sold are conspicuously marked with the correct grade of the articles of food offered for sale and sold as and of their proper grade.

(2) Every person who shall sell any article of food which has been held in cold storage for a period of forty days or over shall keep an accurate record of all such articles sold, showing designation or lot number under which such articles have been held in cold storage, date when sold, kind and quantity sold, and name and address of person to whom sold, and such records shall be open and accessible to the * * * commissioners of the department of agriculture and markets and * * * their agents at all reasonable times, provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as requiring persons who sell at retail and directly to consumers only to keep the aforesaid records.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 333.

AN ACT to amend subsection (1) of section 40.17 of the statutes, relating to claims against school districts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (1) of section 40.17 of the statutes is amended to read: (40.17) (1) The board may purchase necessary books and stationery for keeping the records and for doing the business of the district in an orderly manner, and such equipment, books, school apparatus and heating and ventilating apparatus, as may be approved by the state superintendent or by the county superintendent for the use of schools, not exceeding three hundred dollars in value in any one year, from any funds not otherwise appropriated, and such schoolbooks as in their judgment may be needed by pupils whose parents are not able to furnish the same.
