CHAPTER 350.

AN ACT to amend section 1, chapter 81, laws of 1933, relating to printing and posting of notices of tax sales.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1, chapter 81, laws of 1933, is amended to read: (Chapter 81, laws of 1933) Section 1. The county treasurer shall, on the fourth Monday of June in the year 1933, make out a statement of all lands upon which the taxes have been returned as delinquent and which then remain unpaid, except public lands held on contract and lands mortgaged to the state, containing a brief description thereof, with an accompanying notice stating that so much of each tract or parcel of land described in said statement as may be necessary therefor will, on the first Tuesday in August next thereafter and the next succeeding days, be sold by him at public auction at some public place, naming the same, at the seat of justice of the county, for the payment of taxes, interest and charges thereon; and if in any county no seat of justice shall be established then at such public place therein as he may select; and cause such statement and notice to be published in a newspaper printed in his county, if there be one, and if there be none, then in a newspaper printed in an adjoining county, if there be one, but if there be no newspaper printed in the same or an adjoining county, then such statement and notice shall be published in the official state paper, which statement and notice shall in all cases be published once in each week for * * * at least two successive weeks prior to said first Tuesday in August. In the event that bids have been called for, or that contracts have been entered into, for such publication for a period of four successive weeks and there is not sufficient time for such four publications prior to said first Tuesday in August the county treasurer, in his discretion, *may modify said contract and publish such statement and notice for a period of at least two successive weeks prior to said first Tuesday in August. * *  Such treasurer shall also, at least * * * two weeks previous to said day, cause to be posted up copies of said statement and notice in at least four public places in such county, one of which copies shall be posted up in some conspicuous place in his office; but it shall be unlawful for any county treasurer to publish such statement and notice in any newspaper in his county that has not been regularly and continuously published in such county once in each calendar week for at least two years immediately before the date of such notice, if there be a newspaper which has been so published in such county; and any county treasurer who shall violate the provisions of this section shall forfeit a sum equal to the fees allowed by law for such publications, to be sued for and recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the state of Wisconsin, one-half of such penalty to be paid to the informant and the other half into the school fund.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 351.

AN ACT to repeal and recreate section 99.33 of the statutes, relating to marketing of perishable agricultural commodities.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 99.33 of the statutes is repealed.

SECTION 2. A new section is added to the statutes to be numbered and to read: 99.33 (1) When used in this act:

(a) The term "person" includes individuals, partnerships, corporations, and associations.

(b) The term "perishable agricultural commodities" means fresh fruits and fresh vegetables of every kind and character.

(c) The term "commission merchant" means any person engaged in the business of receiving any perishable agricultural commodity for sale on commission, or for or on behalf of another.

(d) The term "dealer" means any person who buys, sells, offers or exposes for sale, or has in his possession with intent to sell, any perishable agricultural commodity, except that (1) no producer
