CHAPTER 136.

AN ACT to make provision to enable the surviving members of the Grand Army of the Republic residing in Wisconsin to attend the national encampment to be held at a city, to be designated by the national executive council, and its environs, in the month of September, 1943 and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All surviving members of the Grand Army of the Republic who now reside in this state are entitled to attend the national encampment to be held in cities in the United States, to be named by the national executive council.

SECTION 2. All applications of such members desiring to avail themselves of the provisions of this act shall be made to the adjutant general of this state, upon receiving any such application, shall satisfy himself as to the qualifications of such applicant, and, upon being so satisfied, shall make provisions for his transportation, including sleeping berths and meals, from his home to such city and return, under such reasonable rules and regulations as the said adjutant general may adopt.

SECTION 3. There is appropriated from the general fund to the adjutant general annually, beginning July 1, 1943, a sum sufficient, but not to exceed $1,000, to pay all the necessary expenses which, in his judgment, may be necessary to properly provide for and pay all transportation, costs, necessary care and entertainment of all such members described in section 1 who attend such national encampment, from their homes to such city and return.

Approved May 13, 1943.
