CHAPTER 145.

AN ACT to create 331.20 (3) of the statutes, relating to newspapers losing eligibility to publish because of the war.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

331.20 (3) of the statutes is created to read:

331.20 (3) When any newspaper in the state of Wisconsin which on January 1, 1942, shall have been eligible under the requirements of subsection (1) to have published therein legal notices, advertisements or reports required to be published by or in pursuance to any law or by order of any court, and which shall thereafter for any cause attributable to the present war lose such eligibility, the publisher thereof may, any time thereafter before the expiration of one year after the termination of the present war, as proclaimed by the President or Congress of the United States, resume publishing in such newspaper any such legal notices, advertisements or reports and make charges therefor so long as such newspaper shall at the time of such resumption and thereafter when such notices, advertisements or reports are published therein, have all the requirements enabling it to be entered by the United States post-office department as entitled to second class mailing privileges, a bona fide paid circulation to actual subscribers as required in subsection (1), and shall be regularly and continuously published in the city, village, township or county from which such legal notices, advertisements or reports are received. The provisions of this subsection shall supersede any provision of law in conflict therewith.
