CHAPTER 101.

AN ACT to amend 201.03 (6) of the statutes, relating to requirement of publishing notice of amendment of articles of mutual insurance companies.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

201.03 (6) of the statutes is amended to read:

201.03 (6) The charter of any mutual insurance company incorporated under special act and, unless otherwise provided therein, the articles of incorporation of any mutual insurance company may be amended by a vote of three-fourths of the members voting at a meeting after the proposed amendment has been filed with its secretary and the commissioner and a copy thereof with notice of time and place of meeting has been mailed to each member. In lieu of the foregoing notification to each member, the company may publish a copy thereof in a newspaper of general statewide circulation at least 30 days prior to such meeting.

Approved May 1, 1945.
