CHAPTER 287.

AN ACT to create 201.85 of the statutes, relating to voluntary benefit plans conducted by interscholastic athletic associations.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

201.85 of the statutes is created to read:

201.85 VOLUNTARY BENEFIT PLANS IN SCHOOLS. Any plan operated by schools or school authorities of this state, as members of a voluntary association or otherwise, whereby benefits are provided for injury or accidental death of pupils attending such schools arising out of or in connection with athletic activities or in any other manner, may be operated up to July 1, 1951, without complying with the insurance laws of this state, but from and after July 1, 1951 any such plan shall, in the absence of any statutory provisions specifically relating thereto, be subject to all applicable insurance laws of this state.

Approved June 16, 1949.
