CHAPTER 292.

AN ACT to amend 49.12 (6) of the statutes, relating to failure of dependent persons receiving public aid from disclosing receipt of assets of income and providing a penalty.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

49.12 (6) of the statutes is amended to read:

49.12 (6) Where a person is originally eligible for assistance * * * and receives any income or assets or both thereafter and * * * fails to notify the proper officer or agency of the receipt of such assets within 15 days after such receipt and continues to receive aid, * * * such failure to so notify the proper officer or agency of receipt of such assets or income or both shall be considered a fraud and the penalties as set forth in subsection (1) shall apply.

Approved June 16, 1949.
