CHAPTER 276.

AN ACT to amend chapter 291, laws of 1929, section 12 (6), relating to the county court of Oneida county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Chapter 291, laws of 1929, section 12 (6) is amended to read:

(Chapter 291, Laws of 1929) Section 12 (6) In case of the disqualification of the county judge of Oneida county to hear, try, or determine any matter pending in said lower municipal branch of said court, or in case of his sickness, temporary absence or disability, he shall by an order in writing filed in said court, appoint * * * a court commissioner of said county or some qualified judge of an adjoining county, not otherwise disqualified, to discharge the duties of said judge relative to such action or proceeding, or during such sickness, temporary absence or disability. The * * * court commissioner or judge so appointed shall have all of the powers of said county judge in such branch concerning actions and proceedings that may so come before him. He shall receive for his said services $5 for each half day so devoted, payable out of the county treasury of said county.

Approved May 25, 1951.
