

CHAPTER 295.

AN ACT to create 330.52 of the statutes, relating to a limitation on the commencement of actions and proceedings to set aside county court judgments, orders or decrees in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

330.52 of the statutes is created to read:

330.52 COUNTY COURT: INSUFFICIENT SERVICE. No action or proceeding to set aside any judgment, order or decree entered before the effective date of this section by any county court after notice of the application for such judgment, order or decree has been given in accordance with the requirements of the then existing applicable statutes, shall be commenced after one year from the effective date of this section, based solely on the ground of failure to give other or additional notice of the application therefor; and no such judgment, order or decree shall be subject to direct or collateral attack in any action or proceeding based solely on such ground, after one year from the effective date of this section.

Approved June 6, 1951.
