

No. 590, A.]

[Published July 6, 1951.

CHAPTER 419.

AN ACT to amend 247.05 and 247.06 (introductory paragraph) of the statutes, relating to service of process in annulment and divorce.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 247.05 of the statutes is amended to read:

247.05 For the purposes of annulment of marriage, jurisdiction may be acquired by publication as provided in the statutes, * * * by personal service upon the defendant within this state, or in the manner provided in section 262.12, when either party is a bona fide resident of this state at the time of the commencement of the action. When both parties are nonresidents, jurisdiction to annul a marriage contracted within the state may be acquired in the same manner provided the action is commenced within a year after such marriage.

SECTION 2. 247.06 (introductory paragraph) of the statutes is amended to read:

247.06 (introductory paragraph) For purposes of divorce, either absolute or from bed and board, jurisdiction may be acquired by publication as provided in the statutes * * *, by personal service upon the defendant within this state, or in the manner provided in section 262.12, under the following conditions:

Approved June 26, 1951.
