CHAPTER 573.

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 203.28 of the statutes, relating to coverages permitted by a fire company.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

203.28 of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

203.28 FIRE COMPANIES, DOMESTIC; RISKS. Any corporation organized under the laws of this state for the insurance of property against loss or damage by fire may also insure the interest of the insured in the same classes of property, real or personal, subject to the limitations prescribed by the law under which it was organized or is governed as to the amount of any single risk, against loss or damage:

(1) By lightning, hail, wind or rainstorm, earthquake, bombardment, invasion, insurrection, riot, civil war, military or usurped power;

(2) By breakage or leakage of sprinklers or sprinkler systems, pumps, waterpipes or plumbing;

- (3) By explosions, whether fire ensues or not, including explosion of steam boilers, pipes, engines, motors and machinery connected therewith;
- (4) By burglary or theft;
- (5) By breakage of glass;
- (6) By any other hazard which may lawfully be the subject of insurance except hazards which may be insured against under section 201.04 (7), (8) and (9); and
- (7) May insure against loss or damage to live stock and may also insure automobiles and other vehicles including accessories and other property transported upon and used in connection therewith against loss by collision, burglary or theft and may also insure against loss by legal liability for damage to property resulting from the maintenance and use of automobiles or other vehicles and against any risk mentioned in section 201.04 (1), (2), (5) or (10) which the company may assume under its license.

Approved July 6, 1951.
