CHAPTER 640

AN ACT to amend 66.907 (2) (c) 2 of the statutes (as amended by chapter 396, laws of 1953), relating to the amount payable as a disability annuity under the Wisconsin retirement fund.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

66.907 (2) (c) 2 of the statutes (as amended by chapter 396, laws of 1953) is amended to read:

66.907 (2) (c) 2. The sum of the amount of the annuity that can be provided from the accumulation of additional credits not used to provide a reversionary annuity on the date of disability annuity begins plus the lesser of the following amounts: 50 per cent of the final rate of earnings, or the amount of the annuity that could be provided at age 65, from the accumulation of normal, municipal, and prior service credits which would be available at such time, had the employe continued in the service at the final rate of earnings until such time, and had the employe normal contributions and matching municipality contributions after termination of employment because of disability been made without reduction for federal social security purposes as provided in s. 66.903 (2) (f) and had the rate of interest during such period been the effective rate for the year previous to the year in which the disability annuity began.

Approved November 19, 1953.
