

No. 223, S.]

[Published April 29, 1953.

CHAPTER 81.

AN ACT to amend 195.27 of the statutes, relating to safe tracks and bridges.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

195.27 of the statutes is amended to read:

195.27 Every railroad shall construct and maintain its tracks, bridges and line structures in a reasonably adequate and safe manner. * * * If upon complaint the commission after making inspection shall determine that the track or structures of any railroad are inadequate or unsafe for the operation of its railroad, the commission shall after notice and hearing order such railroad to reconstruct or repair such inadequate or unsafe track or structures.

Approved April 24, 1953.
