CHAPTER 74

AN ACT to create 192.25 (5) of the statutes, relating to authorizing single, self-propelled railway passenger car units and a multiple of such units combined on branch lines and other lines not provided with or unable to support other rail passenger service.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

192.25 (5) of the statutes is created to read:

192.25 (5) SELF-PROPELLED PASSENGER UNITS. A single railroad passenger car unit equipped for and capable of self-propulsion, or multiples of such units combined, may be operated on any railroad line not having regularly scheduled passenger train service or which would be otherwise deprived of railway passenger service and rail services incidental thereto because of its inability to support such service thereon by means of other passenger trains. Subsection (1) shall not apply to the operation on any railway of such single railroad passenger car unit or of multiples of such units combined. This subsection shall not apply to street or interurban electric railways not operated as part of a steam railway system.

Approved May 6, 1955.
