

No. 375, A.]

[Published May 23, 1957.

CHAPTER 118

AN ACT to create 256.49 of the statutes, relating to compensation of attorneys appointed by a court.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

256.49 of the statutes is created to read:

256.49 COMPENSATION OF ATTORNEYS APPOINTED BY COURT. Notwithstanding any other provision of the statutes, in all cases where the statutes fix a fee and provide for the payment of expenses of an attorney to be appointed by the court to perform certain designated duties, the court appointing the attorney shall, after the services of the attorney have been performed and the disbursements incurred, fix the amount of his compensation for the services and provide for the repayment of disbursements in such sum as the court shall deem proper, and which compensation shall be such as is customarily charged by attorneys in this state for comparable services.

Approved May 17, 1957.