CHAPTER 8

AN ACT to amend 66.073 of the statutes, relating to the erection of buildings on the ends of streets.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

66.073 of the statutes is amended to read:

66.073 Any city council may by ordinance establish dock lines, regulate the construction of piers and wharves extending into any lake or navigable waters, prescribe and control the prices to be charged for pierage or wharfage thereon, prescribe and regulate the prices to be charged for dockage and storage in the city, and lease the wharfing privileges of the rivers and navigable waters at the ends of streets, giving preference to owners of adjoining land. No buildings shall be erected on the ends of streets, and a free passage over the same for all persons, with their baggage, shall be reserved; but nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the erection of public buildings by a municipality within a filled in area of a lake or river where such municipality has been granted specific authority therefor by the legislature, or in conjunction therewith, in any street end or approaches thereto. No such construction on any street end or approaches shall prevent access to the navigable water.

Approved March 20, 1959.
