CHAPTER 83

AN ACT to amend 956.01 (13) (e) of the statutes, relating to the filing of certificates of conviction with the clerk of the municipal and district court in a county having a population of 500,000 or more.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

956.01 (13) (e) of the statutes is amended to read:

956.01 (13) (e) The county where the plea is made shall pay the costs of prosecution if the defendant does not pay them, and is entitled to retain fees for receiving and paying to the state any fine which may be paid by the defendant. The clerk of court where the plea is made shall file a certificate of conviction substantially in the form prescribed in s. 959.03 with the clerk of circuit court in each county where a crime covered by the plea was committed except that in a county having a population of 500,000 or more the certificate shall be filed with the clerk of the municipal and district court of said county. Upon the filing of this certificate the district attorney shall move to dismiss any charges covered by the plea of guilty, which are pending against the defendant in his county, and the same shall thereupon be dismissed.

Approved June 12, 1959.
