CHAPTER 412

AN ACT to create 330.155 of the statutes, relating to the time within which actions for injury must be brought against persons who performed or furnished the design, planning, supervision or construction of improvement on real property.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

330.155 of the statutes is created to read:

330.155 WITHIN 6 YEARS. No action to recover damages for any injury to property, real or personal, or for an injury to the person, or for bodily injury or wrongful death, arising out of the defective and unsafe condition of an improvement to real property, nor any action for contribution or indemnity for damages sustained on account of such injury, shall be brought against any person performing or furnishing the design, planning, supervision of construction or construction of such improvement to real property, more than 6 years after the performance or furnishing of such services and construction. This limitation shall not apply to any person in actual possession and control as owner, tenant or otherwise, of the improvement at the time the defective and unsafe condition of such improvement constitutes the proximate cause of the injury for which it is proposed to bring an action.

Approved August 16, 1961.
