CHAPTER 565

AN ACT to amend 49.61 (2) (b) of the statutes, relating to continuing of aid to a disabled person who has left the state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

49.61 (2) (b) of the statutes is amended to read:

49.61 (2) (b) Who has resided in Wisconsin continuously for one year or more preceding the date of making application or of being granted aid and such aid may be continued for a period of one year to any recipient who removes his residence to another state, provided that the other state similarly reciprocates by granting aid to the disabled for a period of at least one year to persons moving from that state into Wisconsin;

Approved October 3, 1961.
