

CHAPTER 8.

ELECTION OF JUSTICES, JUDGES AND SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENTS.

8.01	Definitions.	8.03	Notice of election.
8.02	Election of justices, judges and superintendents.	8.04	Judicial elections, multi-judge courts.
		8.05	Conduct of judicial elections.

8.01 Definitions. In this chapter the word "justice" means a justice of the supreme court, "judge" means a judge of a circuit or county court, and "superintendent" means the state superintendent of public instruction and a county or district superintendent of schools.

History: 1961 c. 495.

8.02 Election of justices, judges and superintendents. (1) Every election for justice, judge or superintendent shall be held on the first Tuesday of April. The regular election for justice, judge or superintendent shall be held on the first Tuesday in April next prior to the expiration of the term.

(2) If a vacancy occurs 90 days or more before the first Tuesday in April, in the case of a judge, the election to fill the vacancy shall be held on the first Tuesday of the succeeding April, and in case of a justice, at the first judicial election when no other justice is to be elected. In either case, if the vacancy occurs less than 90 days prior to the first Tuesday of April, the election to fill the vacancy shall not be held until the judicial election of the next year.

8.03 Notice of election. The secretary of state shall give to county clerks at least 25 days' notice of any required primary and of the regular election of justice, judge, or superintendent, and the county clerk shall give not less than 20 days' notice of any such primary or election to be held within his county.

8.04 Judicial elections, multi-judge courts. (1) When there are 2 or more judges of the same court the notice shall state the number of the branch presided over by the judge to be elected and, if that branch has been designated by statute or court rule by a particular name, by its name also.

(2) When 2 or more judges of the same court are to be elected on the same day the notice shall state the names of the judges whose successors are to be elected and the number and name, if there is one, of the branch presided over by each. One ballot box shall be used and the official ballot shall contain the names of all candidates for such successions, shall state the number of judges to be elected and the number of candidates for whom each elector may vote, and shall designate each candidacy as "For Circuit (or County) Judge to succeed, Branch No. (name of branch)." Each elector may vote for one candidate for each branch or judge of the court required to be filled, and the person receiving the highest number of votes for judge of either of such branches shall be declared elected.

8.05 Conduct of judicial elections. Elections for justice, judge and superintendent shall be noticed, held, conducted and the results canvassed and returned in the same manner as general elections. The ballots shall be printed, furnished and distributed by the county clerks, at the expense of the county, as other ballots and so prepared as to indicate the candidates to be voted for and the respective office for which each is intended as a ballot, substantially in the form prescribed in section 6.23 (16). All votes given for any such officer shall be put in a ballot box, separate from that used for any other election on the same day. The polls of election for such officers shall open and close at the same time that the polls are opened and closed for the election of other officers who are voted for at the same time and place, or if no other officers are then being voted for they shall open and close at the same time at which they would be opened and closed, in the locality in which they are located, at any general election. Within a like time as prescribed for the county canvass after a general election, a board of county canvassers shall be convened, who shall canvass the statements received from the several polls in the county and make a statement thereof, and return the same as at a general election, and they shall determine who are elected to such offices within the county, except for circuit judge, and the county clerk shall give to each such successful candidate a certificate of election. The board of state can-
