CHAPTER 60, LAWS OF 1967

AN ACT to amend 97.27 (2) of the statutes, relating to the use of sulphur dioxide or sulphites as anti-oxidants in the processing of grape juice.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

97.27 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

97.27 (2) This section shall not be construed to prohibit the sale of dietary foods containing saccharin in containers labeled in accordance with s. 97.60, nor the use of sulphur dioxide or sulphites as anti-oxidants in the processing of potatoes, frozen apples, grape juice, reconstituted lemon juice or reconstituted lime juice provided such foods contain not more than 350 parts per million SO²; nor the use of sulphur dioxide in molasses or in the processing of dried fruits in amounts no more than may be necessary in good manufacturing practice. Any person who refreezes or offers for sale any refrozen fruit containing sulphur dioxide or sulphites as anti-oxidants in not more than 350 parts per million, ~~shall~~ may be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500 or imprisoned not more than 3 months or both, and for each subsequent offense ~~shall~~ may be fined not less than $500 nor more than $1,000 or imprisoned in the county jail not less than 6 months nor more than one year. The department may promulgate rules limiting the quantity therein for any such dried fruit or molasses.

Approved June 29, 1967.
