Assembly Journal

Seventy-Ninth Regular Session

---

MONDAY, January 6, 1969.

2:00 P.M.

The assembly met.

The assembly was called to order by the chief clerk of the 1967 session, Mr. Wilmer H. Struebing.

The prayer was offered by Reverend Canon Alan P. Smith, Executive Secretary, Episcopal Diocese of Milwaukee, 2800 E. Menlo Blvd., Shorewood, Wis. 53211.

Almighty God, who hast given us this good land for our heritage; We humbly beseech thee that we may always prove ourselves mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will Bless this state with honorable industry and may all good learning flourish and abound.

Save us from violence, discord and confusion; defend our liberties and grant us justice and peace at home.

Endue with the spirit of wisdom those legislators to whom we entrust the authority of the government of Wisconsin: Direct and prosper all their counsels to the advancement of Thy glory and the safety, honor, and welfare of our people.

Grant that they may serve truly and faithfully to the edifying and well-governing of Thy people: remembering always the strict and solemn account which they must one day give.

This we ask for Thy name's sake. AMEN.

REMARKS BY THE NEWLY-ELECTED SPEAKER

Thank you . . . . for the confidence you have expressed in me . . . . and for the honor you have given to me in re-electing me to serve . . . . as speaker of this house.

On this January 6th . . . . we must, of necessity, pause and reflect on the task that lies before us as legislators in 1969. We must keep uppermost in our minds that . . . . in the coming weeks and months . . . . most of the problems of this great state will be brought here—to this chamber—to challenge us and require us, as the elected representatives of the people, to make sound and responsible decisions.

We must recognize the responsibility we have and the duty we have to make those decisions in the interest of good government . . . . in the interests of the citizens of Wisconsin.

We are faced today . . . . at all levels of government . . . . with problems and challenges that call for positive action and sound judgment. Nationally . . . . our traditions and our very form of government itself, are challenged . . . . from without, and from within.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [January 6, 1969]

At the state and local level we are also faced with mounting problems that will not disappear merely by subjecting . . . . and re-subjecting them to more study. The time for study is past . . . . and the time for decision is now.

Procrastination will serve only to hurt the legislative process and weaken the public's confidence in the legislature and in government itself. Decisions we make here may, at times, subject us to criticism . . . . but only through determination, courage and conviction by us can our system of representative government survive.

I renew my plea to you . . . . of two years ago . . . . to continue to move in the direction of a stronger and improved legislature and legislative process.

We made, in the 1967 session, significant progress in that respect—and it is my feeling that we must continue in restoring the legislature to its proper status, as a separate, and co-equal branch of state government.

In facing the challenges of the 1970's the legislature can no longer afford to operate in the tradition of the 1920's. We must innovate . . . . we must move toward new concepts and new ideas . . . . and we must be willing to consider and accept new ways and new methods—weighing them in respect to changing times and changing conditions.

A strong legislature is one capable of making those changes and one that is ready to enter into the "main-stream" of state government. We as a legislature need not accept domination by any other branch of state or federal government. We need not be told by the departments of state government what we must do. . . . We need not be told by the agencies of the federal government what the state must do . . . . because we can be capable of making our own decisions and seeking our own solutions. It is up to us. We alone can put this house in order.

The people of this state have sent us as their elected representatives, not to capitulate to the dictates of the bureaucrats . . . . not to delegate our powers to other non-elected administrators of government . . . . not to act in subservience as a puppet of Washington . . . . but to act with dispatch in carrying forth the duties imposed upon us by the people, under the constitution of this state.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [January 6, 1969]

These goals and these ideals . . . . . along with hardwork and dedicated service by every member of this assembly, can establish this session as one of the outstanding sessions in legislative history.

The onus thus falls on each of us as individuals . . . . . for in addition to being a personal representative for 1 percent of the state's population . . . . . each of us also has an obligation to the entire state of Wisconsin.

There will be times when partisanship should be put aside . . . . . when the interests of all of the people transcend the issues that are purely partisan. But I am confident that the members of this house are capable of rising to those occasions. We saw, in the past session, many examples of the willingness of both Republicans and Democrats to rise above partisanship . . . . . and this is as it should be.

So let us move forward together for the best interests of all Wisconsin. Thank you again for the privilege and honor you have granted me.

The speaker announced the next order of business.

Introduction

On July 28, 1968, the Assembly adopted Assembly Resolution 25 which states:

“Resolved by the assembly, That the assembly rules committee be and hereby is instructed to conduct a study of the assembly rules for the purpose of making recommendations concerning necessary changes; and, be it further

Resolved, That the committee present its report, which it shall make available no later than December 1, 1968, to the 1969 legislature when it convenes.”.

The assembly committee on rules held formal meetings in Madison on:

March 19, 1968

November 7, 1968

November 20, 1968—preliminary report.

January 6, 1969—final approval of report.

The committee was assisted by the Legislative Reference Bureau and the chief clerk of the assembly.

As a result of this study the committee approved the following drafts for introduction by the committee in 1969:

LRB-468

LRB-469

LRB-481

LRB-518

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [January 6, 1969]

LRB-520
LRB-522
LRB-776
LRB-1105

These drafts are respectfully submitted to the 1969 Assembly with the unanimous approval of all the members of the rules committee.

1969 Assembly Resolution —

To amend assembly rule 96, to allow pamphlets to be prepared for inclusion in the assembly manual and making rules for spelling, capitalization and the printing of precedents.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This proposal provides that the assembly rules and other parts of the assembly manual shall be printed in pamphlet form. The assembly manual shall consist of these pamphlets in a loose-leaf binder.

This proposal also requires spelling and capitalization in the assembly manual to follow the same style as the Wisconsin Statutes.

This proposal also allows the chief clerk on instruction by the assembly rules committee to print precedents immediately following each rule.

Resolved by the assembly, That assembly rule 96 is amended to read:

Assembly Rule 96. Format and Style For Rules and Manual. (1) The assembly rules shall be incorporated in the assembly manual which shall be prepared in loose-leaf pamphlet form for a loose-leaf binder under the direction of the chief clerk.

(2) The spelling and capitalization of the assembly rules shall follow the same style as the Wisconsin statutes.

(3) Upon instruction by the committee on rules, the chief clerk shall print each precedent immediately following the rule to which it applies and in the wording shown in the journal.

1969 Assembly Resolution —

To repeal assembly rule 20 (1) (d), relating to the committee on Contingent Expenditures.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This proposal eliminates the committee on Contingent Expenditures from the list of standing committees of the assembly.

---

Resolved by the assembly, That: Assembly Rule 20 (1) (d) is repealed.

---

1969 Assembly Resolution —

To amend assembly rule 18a (title), (4) and (5), relating to the consent calendar.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This proposal renames the special calendar for expediting noncontroversial bills.

The new name is the "consent calendar".

---

Resolved by the assembly, That Assembly Rule 18a (title), (4) and (5) are amended to read:

Assembly Rule 18a. Consent Calendar.

(4) Bills remaining on such list shall be placed on a ~~special~~ 2nd reading consent calendar for the presentation and consideration of amendments. Following 2nd reading such bills shall be engrossed and placed on a ~~special~~ 3rd reading consent calendar for consideration and passage or rejection. Thereafter such bills shall be treated as are any other assembly bills.

(5) Whenever a bill is received from the senate which has been considered on such a ~~special~~ consent calendar in that house, it shall, unless otherwise ordered by the assembly, be placed on such a ~~special~~ 2nd reading consent calendar in the assembly and thereafter follow the same procedure as do other senate bills in the assembly.

1969 Assembly Resolution —

To amend assembly rules 53 (2) and 57 (1) (intro.), relating to the consideration of substitute amendments and the holding over of a proposal because of the introduction of a substitute amendment.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This proposal provides that substitute amendments introduced before the assembly considers a bill shall be considered in inverse sequence. Substitute amendments introduced while the assembly is considering the bill shall be considered after all the other substitute amendments are considered, if such consideration is still in order.

In addition, this proposal provides that no proposal shall be laid over more than twice because of the introduction of a substitute amendment.

Resolved by the assembly, That:

SECTION 1. Assembly rule 53 (2) is amended to read:

Assembly Rule 53 (2) If a substitute amendment is offered to any resolution, joint resolution or bill which is on the calendar, such proposal shall, together with all its amendments, go over to the next calendar day, but no proposal shall because of the introduction of a substitute amendment be laid over more than twice. When a substitute amendment is offered to any proposal on the day when such proposal is to be taken up for consideration, such substitute amendment shall not lay over the proposal.

SECTION 2. Assembly rule 57 (1) (intro.) is amended to read:

Assembly Rule 57 (1) (intro.) Substitute amendments in inverse sequence, starting with the last substitute amendment introduced before the present consideration of the bill. Any substitute amendment introduced during the present consideration of a bill shall be considered in order of introduction and only after action on the inverse sequence is completed, if such consideration remains appropriate.

Note: The committee recommends the repeal of Assembly Rule 53 (2) if the amendment to 53 (2) is rejected.

1969 Assembly Resolution —

To amend assembly rule 73, relating to adverse disposition.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This resolution provides that any amendment as it affects a proposal is not subject to further consideration in the same session of the legislature if the amendment is adversely disposed of.

---

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [January 6, 1969]

Resolved by the assembly, That assembly rule 73 is amended to read:

Assembly Rule 73. A proposal or where applicable an amendment as it affects the proposal is adversely disposed of for that session of the legislature by any of the following methods:

- (1) Indefinite postponement
- (2) Rejection
- (3) Nonconcurrence
- (4) Fails to be ordered engrossed
- (5) Fails to be ordered to a 3rd reading
- (6) Fails passage
- (7) Fails concurrence
- (8) When the objections of the governor are sustained

And in the above listed cases, except as provided in Rule 74 on reconsideration, such proposals or amendments have been disposed of finally and shall not be ~~reconsidered~~ considered anew in that session of the legislature. Once a proposal originating in the assembly has been adversely disposed of, another proposal identical or substantially similar in nature shall not be originated in the assembly in that session.

1969 Assembly Resolution —

To amend assembly rule 75, eliminating debate after the presiding officer has asked for a voice vote.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This proposal provides that no debate shall be allowed after the presiding officer has asked for a voice vote.

Resolved by the assembly, That assembly rule 75 is amended to read:

Assembly Rule 75. The presiding officer shall state the question as it is before the assembly; thereafter he asks for an affirmative voice vote by stating substantially as follows: "Those in favor (as the question may be) say 'aye'", and after the affirmative voice vote is expressed, he asks for the negative voice vote: "Those opposed say 'no'". Debate shall not be in order after the presiding officer has asked for a voice vote.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [January 6, 1969]

1969 Assembly Resolution —

To amend assembly rule 16, relating to the order of business in the assembly.

---

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This resolution proposes that the offering of motions (which was the 3rd order of business under the 1967 rules) be made the 10th order of business under the 1969 rules of the assembly.

In addition, the proposal would clarify the 11th order of business (which is stated as the "consideration of motions" but in reality is the consideration of motions for reconsideration) by adding the words "for reconsideration".

Resolved by the assembly, That assembly rule 16 is amended to read:

Assembly Rule 16. Following the opening prayer, the order of business shall be as follows:

- ~~1.~~ (1) First order. Call of the roll.
- ~~2.~~ (2) Second order. Amendments may be offered.
- ~~3.~~ Motions may be offered
- ~~4.~~ (3) Third order. Introduction and reference of resolutions.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [January 6, 1969]

1969 Assembly Resolution —

To repeal assembly rule 39, relating to the time limits for introduction of proposals by members.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This proposal repeals assembly rule 39 dealing with the time limits for introduction of proposals by members. This rule did not provide for anything not already covered under joint rule 18.

However, a conflict might arise if—as has been proposed—joint rule 18 and the 52nd day deadline were repealed.

Resolved by the assembly, That assembly rule 39 is repealed.

SPEAKER'S RULING ON POINT OF ORDER

The Speaker ruled that by reason of the complexity of the matter and the technicality of the specific issue, the affidavits, which were mailed to the Speaker with the other documents of the contest, would be held by him until the Elections Committee and its counsel decided whether the affidavits could be considered by the Committee and Assembly as part of this contest

Assemblyman Alfonsi moved that the assembly adjourn to 2:00 P. M. Tuesday, January 21, 1969.

Motion carried.
