COMMUNICATION

The State of Wisconsin
Legislative Reference Bureau
State Capitol
Madison, Wis. 53702

February 11, 1969.

From H. Rupert Theobald

To the members and officers of the 1969 Legislature

Re: Bulletin of Proceedings

By order of the Joint Committee on Legislative Organization, the preparation of the subject and author indexes to the Bulletin of Proceedings was for the 1969 Session transferred from the Chief Clerks' Offices to the Legislative Reference Bureau. The first weekly edition has now been distributed. Here are some of the new features:

(1) Though the first edition, because of its small number of pages, has been stapled together in one volume, the bulletin will eventually consist of 3 volumes: Part 1—Senate, Part 2—Assembly, Part 3—Index.

(2) The Index part will contain the following information:

(a) A subject index to legislation introduced. This is a combined subject index showing all the legislation introduced in both houses—bills, joint resolutions and resolutions; if an amendment introduces a new topic, the amendment will be noted also.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [February 11, 1969]

(b) A combined alphabetical author index to legislation. In this index, all legislators are shown in alphabetical sequence because it has been our experience that constituents frequently do not know in which house a particular legislator serves. Assemblymen are shown as follows: John M. Alberts (Waukesha-2). Senators are shown as follows: Sen. Allen J. Busby (8th District).

(c) A similarly combined author index to legislation introduced by the entire membership of either house.

(d) Another combined author index showing the proposals introduced by the committees of either house.

(e) A combined subject index to the Senate and Assembly Journals. In this index, the entry "S 183-184" indicates that the item indexed appears on pages 183 to 184 of the Senate Journal; the entry "A 113" that it appears on page 113 of the Assembly Journal.

(f) Future editions of the index part will also contain an alphabetical listing of lobbyists, the agencies which they represent, and the specific interest for which they registered with the Secretary of State.

(3) In the new Index part, we have attempted to describe each proposal in more detail than can ordinarily be found in the bill's title. Also, under each heading, the entries are again alphabetized by the key word of the descriptive statement. This represents a departure from prior sessions when, in the author index, proposals were listed in numerical sequence. We felt, however, that proposals are already listed in numerical sequence in the Senate and Assembly parts of the bulletin so that persons who know the bill number can find the specific document fastest in the Senate or Assembly part, while persons who know the author and subject of a proposal can now find it faster in the author index.

Because this is our first experience with compiling the Index part, we are liable to have made mistakes (if that includes a misspelled name, please accept our apologies). If you find a mistake, we would appreciate it if you would let us know so that the proper correction can be made for the next weekly edition. Please transmit such corrections—and any other suggestions you wish to offer concerning improving the usefulness of the Index part—to Mr. Theobald at Room 221 North in the Legislative Reference Bureau.

SPECIAL GUESTS

Announced by the Speaker was the newly designated Legislative Director for the Wisconsin Veterans Council, William Emmanuel. Mr. Emmanuel presided at the speaker's rostrum for the purpose of introducing the retiring Legislative Director, Gil Stordock, and the following leaders of various veterans' organizations in Wisconsin:

Marty Bennington, Amvets Department Commander; Elaine Ludka, Amvets Auxiliary President; William Walton, World War I Department Commander; Wes Weidenhoft, Purple Heart Department Commander; Ed Mortenson, VFW Department Commander; Richard Scheible, President of the Wisconsin Veterans' Council; Richard Gralinski, Polish-American Legion Department Commander; Frank Cecholinski, Secretary of the Wisconsin Veterans' Council.

Following the foregoing introductions, the members of the Assembly expressed their appreciation in an ovation of enthusiastic applause.
