COMMUNICATION

Wisconsin Legislature
Senate Chamber
Madison 53702

October 15, 1969.

TO: Chief Clerks of the Senate and Assembly

FROM: Senator Milo G. Knutson, Chairman of the Joint Committee to Study Disruptions at the University of Wisconsin

Gentlemen: I am transmitting herewith the report of the Joint Committee to Study Disruptions at the University of Wisconsin, created by Senate Joint Resolution 20, 1969, and appendix. I ask you to spread this report upon the Senate Journal.

A copy of this report and appendix together with the Committee minutes and the Committee exhibits has been filed with the Legislative Reference Bureau.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [October 15, 1969]

I would like to express my appreciation for the contribution made by my fellow committee members, and to particularly express my appreciation to Assemblyman Stanley York for his time and effort and contributions in general areas of the Committee's concern. I would, also, like to thank Attorney General Robert Warren and his staff and in particular Assistant Attorney General John Armstrong. Also, I would like to thank staff attorney James Klauser of the Legislative Council, and Lt. Governor Olson for his counsel and assistance.

The Committee has introduced Senate Joint Resolution 95 to implement its recommendation regarding the study of the University administrative system.

Respectfully submitted,

MILO G. KNUTSON,
Senator.
