REPORT OF JOINT SURVEY COMMITTEE ON
RETIREMENT SYSTEMS

APPENDIX TO SENATE BILL 503

Recommendation

It is the feeling of this Committee that the retirement legislation program of the state supported retirement systems within Wisconsin should not include legislation of the nature contained in this bill. It is, therefore, the opinion of this Committee that passage of this bill is not in the best public interest.

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF JOINT SURVEY COMMITTEE ON
RETIREMENT SYSTEMS

APPENDIX TO SENATE BILL 542

Recommendation

It is the primary responsibility of this Committee to prepare reports on matters dealing with retirement. Consequently, the section dealing with group insurance coverage was not studied. It is the feeling of this Committee that whenever a reorganization of governmental agencies takes place the retirement rights of all employes concerned should be adequately protected. It is, therefore, the opinion of this Committee that passage of Senate Bill 542 is in the best public interest.

Respectfully submitted,

MOTION UNDER JOINT RULE 26

The State of Wisconsin * * * Citation by the Legislature
Know you by these presents:

Whereas, former President and Mrs. Harry S. Truman were married on June 28, 1919 and have marched down life's road together, comforting and inspiring Americans, as a living example of the American way of life; and

Whereas, The Milwaukee Sentinel in recognition of their 50th wedding anniversary quoted Mr. Truman as stating, "We went to Sunday school, public school from the fifth grade through high school, graduated in the same class, and marched down life's road together. For me she still has the blue eyes and golden hair of yesteryear."; and

Whereas, the Wisconsin home and family council has recommended that the Trumans be recognized as an example of the true happiness matrimony can bring Americans; now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Senators Busby, McParland and Lorge and Assemblyman Huber, under Joint Rule 26, extend their congratulations to former President and Mrs. Harry S. Truman and commend them on their matrimonial happiness, which is an inspiration to all Americans.
