Senate Resolution 22

Adjourning the senate (except for skeleton sessions) from July 18, 1969, to October 7, 1969, for the purpose of holding public hearings and taking committee action.

Whereas, legislation of vital import before the Wisconsin state senate requires public hearing, so that the people of this state may express their opinions on the laws proposed to govern them; and

Whereas, the committees of the senate must give thorough deliberation to these proposals, which embody the challenging and complex social and governmental issues confronting this state; and

Whereas, the senate now awaits further action on the state budget; and

Whereas, many vital legislative proposals depend on the prior adoption of this budget; and

Whereas, sound public policy demands that the business of the senate be acted upon in a manner both studious and expeditious; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the senate, That the full senate adjourn, for the purposes of public hearings and committee action, on July 18, 1969 until October 7, 1969; and, be it further

Resolved, That skeleton sessions be held as necessary; and, be it further

Resolved, That a majority of the members of the committee on senate organization, or a majority of senators by signing a petition, may reconvene the complete senate for full sessions when the public business requires, with all members being notified one day, or more if possible, before such sessions are scheduled.

By Senator Keppler.

Read and adopted.

Upon motion of Senator Keppler, with unanimous consent, the senate returned to the 4th order of business.
