COMMITTEE REPORT

REPORT OF JOINT SURVEY COMMITTEE ON TAX EXEMPTIONS

ASSEMBLY BILL 47

Public Policy Involved

This proposal is undesirable. To exempt admission charges at events where professional entertainment is not "a major attraction" is bound to lead to disputes over what constitutes a "major attraction". Few social, fraternal, neighborhood, or work groups which convene for a banquet, dance, picnic or to sponsor a sports show or fair where professional entertainment is present would admit that the entertainment was the "major attraction", although it may have been that in the minds of those who attended.

To joint committee on Finance.

ASSEMBLY BILL 219

Public Policy Involved

Wisconsin adopted a general sales tax law recently, under which a tax applies to most retail sales, with a certain few categories exempted. The state has come to rely on this tax as a major revenue source. This proposal would result in a substantial decrease in revenue from sales tax without proposing alternative sources to offset the anticipated loss. For this reason this bill is undesirable as a matter of public policy.

To joint committee on Finance.

ASSEMBLY BILL 220

Public Policy Involved

Wisconsin adopted a general sales tax law recently, under which a tax applies to most retail sales with a certain few categories exempted. The state has come to rely on this tax as a major revenue source. This proposal would result in a substantial decrease in revenue from sales tax without proposing alternative sources to offset the anticipated loss. For this reason this bill is undesirable as a matter of public policy.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [May 26, 1971]

To joint committee on Finance.

ASSEMBLY BILL 221

Public Policy Involved

When Wisconsin adopted a general sales tax it planned to use the receipts from this source for its own expenditures and for providing funds for aids to local governments in meeting their obligations. A bill to reduce those receipts by $97.6 million biennially—without expressing other ways to make up the lost revenue—is undesirable.

To joint committee on Finance.

Assembly Bill 258

Public Policy Involved

This bill is not desirable public policy. The exemption proposed would permit certain professional entertainment receipts to be tax-free, whereas others would be taxable, depending on who conducts the entertaining event.

To joint committee on Finance.

Assembly Bill 706

Public Policy Involved

The primary purpose of the real estate transfer fee law is to provide state and local assessors with information on established values of real property transferred. This proposal would eliminate needed data on property passing between businesses and their owners, to the detriment of good property tax administration. This bill is not desirable as a matter of public policy.

To committee on Taxation.

Respectfully submitted,

HARVEY L. DUEHOLM,
Chairman.
