JOINT SURVEY COMMITTEE ON TAX EXEMPTIONS

Assembly Bill 716

Public Policy Involved

This is desirable as a matter of public policy. The proposal simplifies the administration of the tax both for veterinarians and the state with very little loss of revenue.

To joint committee on Finance.

Assembly Bill 762

Public Policy Involved

This proposal is not desirable public policy. States commonly make arbitrary but crucial distinctions between residents and nonresidents on the basis of what is best for the state, its subdivisions and its citizens. If this exemption is extended to include pleasure craft of nonresidents, the tax base of some Wisconsin communities which already have financial problems will be further diminished.

HARVEY L. DUEHOLM,
Chairman.

To joint committee on Finance.
