INTRODUCTION AND REFERENCE OF RESOLUTIONS

Read first time and referred:

Assembly Resolution 39

Requesting the public service commission to investigate lobbying expenses incurred by Wisconsin utilities.

Whereas, it has been observed that 2 lobbyists from Wisconsin Electric Power Company have been consistently fighting the shared taxes and utility tax redistribution bill in the last few days and that both gentlemen have spent a good deal of time in the legislature opposing other pieces of legislation; and

Whereas, Cornelius T. Young, vice president, and Richard P. Rouse, attorney of Wisconsin Electric Power Company, according to the public service commission annual reports earned the following annual salaries:

	1969	1970
Mr. Young -----	$39,500	$40,800
Mr. Rouse -----	$23,375	$24,875; and

Whereas, the biennial employer's statement filed with the secretary of state's office January 14, 1971, lists a total of

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [September 28, 1971]

$6,104 as expenses for both men for the 1969-71 biennium; and

Whereas, lobbying expenses of utilities are to be disallowed for rate-making purposes by the public service commission; and

Whereas, the following utilities or trade association were granted rate increases in the last biennium and that their lobbying expenses submitted to the secretary of state were:

Northern States Power Co.	$ 763
Wisconsin Electric Power et al	$ 6,104
Wisconsin Gas Company	$ 4,321
Wisconsin Power and Light	$ 2,200
Wisconsin Public Service Corp.	$ 6,000
Wisconsin Railroad Assoc.	$18,970
Wisconsin Telephone Co.—unlisted salary of J. T. Van Sistine, Vice President Public Relations et al; and

Whereas, the above-listed expenses probably do not reflect accurately the total expenditures of Wisconsin utilities for influencing or opposing legislation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, That the public service commission thoroughly investigate the nature and extent of expenditures by Wisconsin utilities for influencing or opposing legislation, including in detail the prorated salaries of officials by name, other prorated salaries and wages and legal expenses for that purpose; and, be it further

Resolved, That the public service commission is requested to report its findings and recommendations to the assembly and to the secretary of state within 30 days after passage of this resolution.

By Representative Sanasarian.
To joint committee on Finance.

Assembly Joint Resolution 117

Relating to eliminating the prohibition against legislative authorization of lotteries (1st consideration).

By Representatives Barbee, Jones, Bolle, Gaulke and Pabst; co-sponsored by Senators Parys, Schuele, Chilsen and Cirilli.

COMMUNICATION

The State of Wisconsin
Department of Justice
Madison

September 24, 1971.

Mr. Thomas P. Fox, Director
Legislative Services
220 West, State Capitol
Madison, Wisconsin 53702

Dear Mr. Fox:

By 1971 Assembly Resolution 12, you have requested my opinion as to the constitutionality of the statute proposed by 1971 Assembly Bill 212. Bill 212A would create sec. 5.02 (1m), Stats., to read as follows:

"5.02 (1m) 'Federal election' means all primaries and elections held to nominate or elect United States senators, representatives in congress and electors of president and vice president including the election to express preferences for the person to be the presidential candidate for each party."

Assembly Resolution 12 was introduced in the assembly February 4, 1971, and adopted April 28, 1971. At that time, it appeared that the legislature would be required to define the limits of a "federal election" or a "national election," since the United States Supreme Court had held, in United States v. Arizona (1970), 400 U.S. 112, 91 S. Ct. 260, 261, 27 L. ed. 2d 262:

" . . . that the 18-year-old vote provisions of the Voting Rights Act Amendments of 1970 are constitutional and enforceable insofar as they pertain to federal elections and unconstitutional and unenforceable insofar as they pertain to state and local elections."

As a practical result of this decision, most states, including Wisconsin, acquired a new special classification of voters, i.e., those entitled to exercise a franchise limited to "federal" or "national" elections. Bill 212A would differentiate between federal, state or local elections in order to implement the exercise of such an 18-year-old federal franchise.

Subsequent to United States v. Arizona, supra, however, Congress proposed the following article as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

"Article—

"Section 1. The right of citizens of the United States, who are eighteen years of age or older, to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of age.

"Sec. 2. The Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation."

On June 30, 1971, Ohio became the 38th state to ratify the amendment and on July 5, 1971, by virtue and in pursuance of § 106b, Title 1 of the United States Code, it was certified by the United States Administrator of General Services as the Twenty-sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution. See Federal Register, Vol. 36, No. 130, July 7, 1971. By virtue of this amendment, 18, 19 and 20 year old citizens, who are otherwise qualified to vote, are entitled to exercise their right to vote in all future elections, whether they be federal, state or local.

The adoption of the Twenty-sixth Amendment clearly appears to have eliminated the previously existing distinction between federal elections and state or local elections. Therefore, since both Bill 212A and Assembly Resolution 12 appear to have been based on a distinction which no longer exists, it is apparent that the questions raised in your inquiry have become moot.

Sincerely yours,

ROBERT W. WARREN,
Attorney General.

CAPTION: Adoption of the Twenty-sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution makes question of constitutionality of Bill 212A moot.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

State of Wisconsin
Office of the Governor
Madison

September 27, 1971.

Mr. Thomas P. Fox
Chief Clerk
Wisconsin State Assembly
State Capitol
Madison, Wisconsin 53702

Gentlemen:

I respectfully request permission to address a joint convention of the Wisconsin Legislature, Thursday, September 30, 1971, at 10:00 A.M., to discuss a proposal for state regulation of cable television in Wisconsin.

Sincerely,

PATRICK J. LUCEY,
Governor.

State of Wisconsin
Office of the Governor
Madison

September 24, 1971.

To the Honorable, the Assembly:

The following bill, originating in the assembly, has been approved, signed and deposited in the office of the Secretary of State.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [September 28, 1971]

Assembly Bill	Chapter No.	Date Approved
82 -----	86 -----	September 21, 1971.

Respectfully submitted,

PATRICK J. LUCEY,
Governor.

GOVERNOR'S VETO MESSAGES

September 21, 1971.

To the Honorable, the Members of the Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 120 without my approval.

Assembly Bill 120 is the enabling legislation required by the Federal Gun Control Act of 1968 to permit Wisconsin residents to purchase rifles and shotguns in contiguous states.

This piece of legislation is duplicative of Senate Bill 77, Chapter 39, Laws of 1971, Wisconsin Statutes, Section 175.30, which was effective May 27, 1961.

Because the enactment of Assembly Bill 120 would duplicate existing legislation, I do not feel it would be in the public interest to sign Assembly Bill 120 into law at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

PATRICK J. LUCEY,
Governor.

September 21, 1971.

To the Honorable, the Members of the Assembly:

I am returning Assembly Bill 187 without my approval.

Assembly Bill 187 allows any first or second class city to lease subterranean space beneath any street, alley or other public place in the city. This bill essentially duplicates Assembly Bill 89, Chapter 43, Laws of 1971, Wisconsin Statutes, Section 66.048, effective May 30, 1971.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY [September 28, 1971]

Because Assembly Bill 187 essentially duplicates Assembly Bill 89, and due to the fact that some confusion might occur due to the small differences between Assembly Bill 187 and Assembly Bill 89, I do not feel that it would be in the public interest to sign Assembly Bill 187 into law at this time.

Respectfully submitted,

PATRICK J. LUCEY,
Governor.
