ciation, as a member of the board of governors of the Wisconsin Bar Association, and as secretary of the family law committee of the Legislative Council; and

Whereas, Judge Drechsler has displayed rich talents and profound devotion and has marked his service to the State of Wisconsin; and

Whereas, his career as a distinguished jurist and as an honorable and sensitive man has brought light to dark places and has challenged all with goals yet to be achieved; and

Whereas, in addition to his distinguished judicial and legal career, Judge Drechsler, who was named Lutheran Man of the Year in 1964 and who received the Milwaukee Cosmopolitan Club's Distinguished Service Award in 1961, and who served for 17 years as co-chairman of the Wisconsin Region of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, remains active in myriad civic and religious organizations; and

Whereas, Judge Drechsler will retire only in the most formal sense, permitting his influence for law, order, justice and humaneness to remain with us for years to come; now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Representative McCormick and Senator Busby on behalf of the entire senate and assembly, under Joint Rule 26, heartily commend Judge Ronold A. Drechsler, a man whose accomplishments and services are simply too numerous to relate here, for his many years of dedicated and selfless public service, and wish him well in his retirement.
