Eightieth Session

THURSDAY, April 22, 1971.

9:30 o'clock A.M.

The senate was called to order by the president pro tempore of the senate.

Prayer was offered by Monsignor Edward M. Kinney, Pastor of St. Pius Tenth Catholic Church, Cambridge, Dane County, Wisconsin.

By request of Senator Lorge, with unanimous consent, the prayer was spread on the journal.

Prayer given before the senate on Thursday, April 22, 1971.

By Monsignor Edward M. Kinney, Pastor of St. Pius Tenth Catholic Church.

O God of light and inspiration, we come to you at the beginning of a new day to ask your guidance for our own personal welfare but especially as members of this legislative body that we may be enlightened to make more effective your divine will on behalf of all those whom we represent. Help us to know more perfectly what is to the betterment of individuals in the framework of our common society and what decisions are beneficial to the homes and families of our state and nation. Give us your divine guidance in helping our homes to uphold high moral principles that will spell out blessing and happiness and peace for all. Amen.
