of the public, which requires, under ch. 153, the services of a person licensed to practice optometry or medicine, does not involve mere "merchandising" of glasses, and in any event such advertising may be prohibited by statute where it tends to deceive and mislead the public. Ritholz v. Johnson, 246 W 444, 17 NW (2d) 390.

See note to sec. 1, art. I, on exercises of police power and limitations imposed by the Fourteenth Amendment, citing Ritholz v. Johnson, 246 W 442, 17 NW (2d) 390.

153.10, Stats. 1957, must be read and interpreted in the light of the declared purpose in 153.12. Considered in such light, 153.10 specifically applies to opticians who are members of an optical firm and engaged in advertising relating to the price of lenses, frames, complete glasses, and advertising a one-price policy. Proof of fraud is not required in order to spell out an offense since the practice protected against is that of filling a prescription to meet the price rather than the needs of the patient. Bedno v. Fast, 6 W (2d) 471, 95 NW (2d) 396.

See note to sec. 1, art. I, on exercises of police power, citing Bedno v. Fast, 6 W (2d) 471, 95 NW (2d) 396.

A rule promulgated by the board of examiners in optometry, so far as declaring that certain advertising practices constitute unprofessional conduct, is beyond the authority of the board, in view of 153.10, Stats. 1955, relating to prohibited advertising, but not enumerating any type of advertising covered by provisions of the rule of the board; hence an order of the board suspending the license of an optometrist to practice, because of violating such rule, is void. Stone v. Harris, 6 W (2d) 634, 95 NW (2d) 764.

153.10, Stats. 1963, prohibiting price advertising of eyeglasses, appears not to be applicable to the Wisconsin distributor of an out-of-state newspaper which carries the price advertising of a concern located in another state where such price advertising is permitted. 44 Atty. Gen. 28.

153.10, Stats. 1959, applies to newspapers which print advertisements and it is immaterial that the optometrist who places the ad conducts his business in a state which does not prohibit price advertising of eyeglasses. 48 Atty. Gen. 223.

153.10, Stats. 1969, may not, in such a case, be considered as a store. 44 Atty. Gen. 223.

153.10, Stats. 1969, applies to newspapers which print advertisements and it is immaterial that the optometrist who places the ad conducts his business in a state which does not prohibit price advertising of eyeglasses. 48 Atty. Gen. 223.

permit under 151.02 (9), Stats. 1955. If the owner of the property proposes to hire the pharmacist and control the operations he should apply for the permit. The fact that the factory owner proposes to furnish the drugs free of charge to employees is not grounds for denying a drug store permit. 4 Atty. Gen. 214.

A person desiring to engage in training for registration as a pharmacist must register as an apprentice with the state board of pharmacy. Apprentice training must be supervised by a pharmacist registered by the board. 46 Atty. Gen. 198.

Items defined as drugs under 151.06 (1), (2) and (3), Stats. 1947, and intended for animal use cannot be sold by merchants generally and may be sold only by persons authorized to do so under 151.03 and 151.04. 37 Atty. Gen. 410.

21 Atty. Gen. 25, to the effect that a rural permit to sell drugs and medicines may not be issued to a person who is a resident of an incorporated city or village, is withdrawn. 39 Atty. Gen. 285.

450.04 History: 1923 c. 449 s. 91; Stats. 1923 s. 151.04; 1929 c. 48; 1944; 1951 c. 516; 1953 c. 172; 1955 c. 115; 1957 c. 69; 1969 c. 336 ss. 100, 175 (5); Stats. 1969 s. 450.04.

The circumstances of a pharmacist's or druggist's calling demand the exercise of a high degree of care and skill, such care and skill as an ordinarily prudent person would exercise under those circumstances, the highest degree of care and prudence consistent with the reasonable conduct of the business. The effect of a mistake may be swift and disastrous. There are many cases in which druggists have been held liable for injuries resulting from negligence in filling a prescription or supplying a remedy." Hoar v. Rasmussen, 229 W 509, 514, 392 NW 652, 654.

The purpose of 151.04 (2), Stats. 1943, is to prevent any but registered pharmacists, or assistant registered pharmacists under the personal supervision of registered pharmacists, from selling or compounding drugs; and a registered pharmacist, having charge of a drugstore in a municipality of the size covered by the statute, and permitting a clerk who is neither a registered pharmacist nor a registered assistant pharmacist to sell drugs, violates the statute. State v. Mass, 240 W 159, 16 NW (2d) 406.

Aspirin, milk of magnesia, and camphorated oil are not "proprietary medicines" within the meaning of 151.04 (3), Stats. 1949, excepting the sale of proprietary medicines from the provisions in 151.04 (2) prohibiting the sale of drugs by persons other than registered pharmacists or assistants. State v. Wakeen, 263 W 401, 57 NW (2d) 364.

Drugs such as tincture of iodine, sweet spirits of nitre, and like preparations, which may be prepared by anyone, are not proprietary medicines within the meaning of 151.04 (3), Stats. 1923, and cannot be sold except under the personal supervision of a registered pharmacist. 14 Atty. Gen. 18.

Aspirin can be sold in drug stores only under statutes regulating druggists and sale of drugs. 16 Atty. Gen. 140, 318.

A practicing physician is not authorized to run a drug store without complying with the pharmacy law. 3 Atty. Gen. 555; 16 Atty. Gen. 722.

It is unlawful to sell drugs and medicines including United States Pharmacopeia and National Formulary preparations except proprietary medicine and medicines specifically exempted in 151.04 (3), Stats. 1927, except by registered pharmacists or assistant registered pharmacists and those having merchants' permits under 151.03. 10 Atty. Gen. 170.

151.04 (2), Stats. 1931, does not prohibit stores from doing their own packaging and labeling of paris green from bulk supply. 39 Atty. Gen. 777.

Formaldehyde may not be sold by a general merchant in a rural district without a permit under 151.03, Stats. 1923. 4 Atty. Gen. 410.

Compounds bearing names similar to aspirin and containing similar ingredients may be sold only under 151.04 (2), Stats. 1957. 28 Atty. Gen. 96.

See note to 95.64, citing 49 Atty. Gen. 341.

Dispensing of drugs by a physician to a patient in the course of professional treatment is exempt from the provisions of ch. 151, Stats. 1921, and no violation of 151.04 (2) or 151.07 (3) is involved where the particular prescription is delivered to the patient by an office girl who has been directed by the physician to select certain tablets from a designated container and package the same under the general supervision of the physician. 41 Atty. Gen. 23.

CHAPTER 452.

Real Estate Examining Board.

Revisor’s Note, 1885: The statutes on licensing real estate brokers (136.01 to 136.18) and those on licensing business opportunity brokers (136.19 to 136.26) are almost identical. This bill eliminates the duplication by consolidating the sections on business opportunity brokers with the parallel sections on real estate brokers. Variances between the 2 parts are preserved and there is no change in substance except in a few very minor ways which are explained in the notes. Absence of a note to any section of the bill means that no change in the law is intended. This revision has been approved by the real estate brokers’ board. (Bill 51-5).

Editor’s Note: Ch. 231, Laws 1929, created secs. 136.01-136.16, Stats. 1939, and repealed the pre-existing sec. 136.01, which was based on ch. 659, Laws 1919, and amendatory statutes. The sections comprising ch. 136, Stats. 1967, were renumbered by ch. 336, Laws 1969.

452.01 History: 1929 c. 231; Stats. 1929 ss. 136.01; 1933 c. 184 s. 2; 1947 c. 411 s. 6; 1947 c. 522; 1947 c. 613 s. 1; Stats. 1947 ss. 136.01; 136.19; 1955 c. 7; 359; Stats. 1955 s. 136.01; 1969 c. 14, 366; 1969 c. 123; 1969 c. 56, 212; 1969 c. 336 ss. 47; Stats. 1969 s. 452.01.

136.01 (2) (h), Stats. 1935, makes immaterial the question of ownership; the test is whether or not the person “is engaged wholly or in part in the business of selling real estate.” 35 Atty. Gen. 741.

A company which is not excluded and which is formed for the purpose of loaning its own money, to be secured by mortgage, is a real estate broker under 136.01, Stats. 1939. 34 Atty. Gen. 1.

Persons who purchase unimproved lots and sell the same to the public after making improvements thereon come within the definition of “real estate broker” contained in 136.01 (2) (b), Stats. 1943. 33 Atty. Gen. 1.

136.02 History: 1957 c. 159; Stats. 1957 s. 136.01; 1963 c. 369, 475; 1965 c. 123; 1969 c. 336 ss. 46, 176 (6); Stats. 1969 s. 452.02.

A person selling the right to entomb a human body forever in a fixed burial space designated as a garden crypt, mausoleum crypt, or sarcophagus for a commercial cemetery in selling “grave spaces” must be licensed under 158.011, Stats. 1957. 47 Atty. Gen. 253.

136.03 History: 1929 c. 331; Stats. 1929 ss. 136.02; 1947 c. 532; Stats. 1947 ss. 136.02, 136.29; 1955 c. 7; Stats. 1955 s. 136.02; 1957 c. 129; 1961 c. 293; 1969 c. 336; 1969 c. 123; 1969 c. 336 ss. 48, 175 (6); Stats. 1969 s. 452.03.

Upon request of a real estate broker, the broker’s license, the amount of the compensation does not alter the legal relation of the parties. Howard v. Heinig, 191 W 166, 210 NW 414.

One who is not licensed as a real estate broker in this state is not authorized to negotiate a lease as such broker, and he cannot recover the agreed commission. Nickoll v. Racine C. & S. Co. 194 W 296, 218 NW 609.

To recover a broker’s commission, a corporation engaged in the real estate business must have a real estate broker’s license under 136.01, Stats. 1927, even though it had succeeded to the business of a licensed brokerage partnership which ceased when the corporation began business. George F. Russell, Inc. v. Hickcox, 197 W 623, 222 NW 807.

An agreement to pay a commission on a loan from a foreign corporation secured by a real estate mortgage, which is loaned by a nonresident loan agent through a resident insurance agent, norther of whom is licensed in Wisconsin, is invalid and precludes a recovery of the commission. Livingston v. Linaker R. Co. 202 W 333, 331 NW 629.

Under the provisions of 136.01 (2) (c) and (3), Stats. 1927, one entering into a contract in this state to procure a loan for another, to be secured by a real-estate mortgage, for a commission, is holding himself out as a broker or salesmen, and cannot recover the commission unless he has a real estate broker’s or real estate salesmen’s license. Livingston v. Linaker R. Co. 202 W 233, 331 NW 629.

The licensing board was justified in denying a real estate broker’s license to an applicant who was unable to read and write the English language although he operated only in selling real estate owned and platted by himself, since a “real estate broker” is anyone who is
