MOTION UNDER JOINT RULE 26

The State of Wisconsin * * * Citation by the Legislature

Know you by these presents:

Whereas, The University of Wisconsin-Madison Hockey Team has culminated its meteoric rise to the zenith of United States Collegiate Hockey by capturing the NCAA Tournament held at the Boston Garden on March 15-17, 1973;

Whereas, this achievement was attained in large measure by the incomparable coaching talents of Mr. Robert "Hawk" Johnson in his seven years at the Wisconsin helm where he has compiled the outstanding record of 158 wins, 73 losses and 6 ties;

Whereas, the past seven years has seen Madison, Wisconsin become the "Capital of College Hockey" through the fantastic, dedicated support of its fans. Once again during the 1972-73 season, an all-time collegiate record for Wisconsin home games was set with 167,902 fans attending twenty games for a per game average of 8,395. When the attendance at the games played away from home is added to this total, it indicates that the Wisconsin hockey team has played before more than a quarter-of-a-million fans during the past season alone--268,917 in 40 games;

Whereas, the leadership for the unequalled record of the 1972-73 squad has been provided by Captain Tim Dool and his classmates Norm Cherrey, Lloyd Bentley, Jim Johnston, Doug Kelso;

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY (March 21, 1973)

Whereas, their 1972-73 victory total of twenty-nine sets an all-time Wisconsin record for wins in one season and is a fitting climax to the seniors four year record of 99 wins, 43 losses, and 4 ties;

Whereas, the quality and depth of the team is personified by the scoring leadership of freshman Dennis Olmstead, the all-around talents of the NCAA most valuable player, sophomore Dean Talafous, and the incomparable goal tending capabilities of sophomore Dick Perkins and Junior Jim Makey;

Whereas, their overall 1972-73 record of 29 wins, 9 losses, and 2 ties entitled the Badgers to win their second consecutive Big 10 Hockey Title and finish third in the final WCHA standings; now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Representative Kenyon E. Giese and Senators Everett Bidwell and Dale McKenna under Joint Rule 26, heartily commend Coach Robert "Hawk" Johnson, Assistant Coach Bill Rothwell, and the members of the NCAA Championship Badger Hockey Team for their outstanding performance in bringing this coveted national title to Wisconsin; congratulate the five seniors for their inspirational leadership; and salute the under-classmen who each contributed greatly to the success of this past year's achievement;

In conclusion, we salute the sport of hockey for the constructive influence it has had on the Madison campus, commend the thousands of Wisconsin fans that have helped build the Wisconsin hockey program with their financial and vocal support, and sincerely thank all those individuals behind the scenes who have had a part in making Wisconsin Hockey a sport of National Championship caliber.

Know you by these presents:

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY (March 21, 1973)

Whereas, Coach Paul Noack and his Hilltopper team compiled an admirable 20-2 record this year after running up an even better 26-0 streak last season; and

Whereas, Marquette's is a record seventh title in the 44-year history of the state Catholic and W.I.S.A.A. meet; and

Whereas, this fine squad has a reputation for toughness and good defense, trademarks of a true winner; now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Representative Berger under Joint Rule 26, congratulate Coach Noack and all the members of the Marquette High School team on their outstanding performance.

Whereas, on November 2, 1972, The Warren Gamaliel Harding Memorial Foundation was incorporated in Wisconsin as a non-profit organization, said date being the 107th anniversary of the birth of the late beloved 29th President of the United States of America; and

Whereas, the Foundation was conceived and formally organized to "honor, perpetuate, and give living witness to the memory of the late 29th President of the United States of America by style, word, and deed; to promote the highest virtues to which mortal man may aspire; to even encourage that continual and fearless sifting and winnowing by which alone the truth can be found; and to uphold the motto of the Foundation: namely, Conviviality, Fraternity, Ebriosity"; now, therefore,

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY (March 21, 1973)

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Representative Anthony S. Earl and Senator Gordon W. Roseleip, under Joint Rule 26, hereby endorse the Warren Gamaliel Harding Memorial Foundation as a worthy tribute to the memory of a distinguished American and esteemed President; and
