MOTION UNDER JOINT RULE 26

The State of Wisconsin * * * Citation by the Legislature

Know you by these presents:

Whereas, on August 28, 1973, a stranger-than-fiction tale of horror occurred in the community of Commonwealth, Wisconsin, which began when an ex-convict on the run, William Way, abducted and held at gunpoint two youngsters, Donald Vassar, Jr., age 14 and Jimmie Dagostino, age 11. Way, pointing a gun at the boys, demanded they call someone with a car. Young Dagostino summoned Jim Youngell and, as instructed by the gunman, told Youngell that he was injured and needed help. When Youngell arrived at the Dagostino home, he was greeted by the gunman who placed his gun under Youngell's nose and threatened to kill him. After forcing Youngell to drive his car to Crystal Lake, the gunman, still holding the two youngsters at gun point, the bizarre chain of events continued, culminating in a physical struggle wherein Youngell finally wrestled the pistol from the gunman, but not before being himself grazed by a bullet which nearly struck his heart; and

Whereas, through the valiant efforts on the part of Mr. Youngell in so engaging the armed person, the police were able to arrive at the scene and apprehend the gunman; now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Representative Kincaid do hereby commend Mr. Jim Youngell for his bravery in risking his life in order to apprehend a dangerous person and by doing so saved others from potential harm or death.
