INTRODUCTION AND REFERENCE OF RESOLUTIONS,

Read and referred:

Assembly Resolution 68

Requesting an opinion of the attorney general regarding the necessity for enactment of 1973 Assembly Bill 419 and the bill's constitutionality.

Whereas, 1973 Assembly Bill 419 is now pending before the assembly; and

Whereas, that proposal would require, in part, provision of balanced instruction "in all major theories of the origin of life, including that of creation", for students in public schools where courses in evolution are provided; and

Whereas, the constitutions of this state and of the United States contain certain prohibitions and declarations of rights pertaining to the pursuit of happiness, freedom of speech and religion; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, That the attorney general is requested to render his formal opinion in writing, as expeditiously as possible, on the questions of:

(1) Whether current constitutional or statutory law implicitly or expressly requires the "balanced instruction" described in 1973 Assembly Bill 419 so as to render enactment of that bill unnecessary?

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY (January 31, 1974)

(2) Whether, 1973 Assembly Bill 419 is sufficiently definite to avoid constitutional challenges on the grounds of vagueness and uncertainty?

(3) Whether, 1973 Assembly Bill 419 is violative of constitutional provisions pertaining to freedom of speech, preference to religious establishments or other applicable constitutional provisions?
