COMMUNICATIONS

State of Wisconsin
Office of Emergency Energy Assistance

March 15, 1974

The Honorable
The Assembly
State Capitol
Madison, Wisconsin 53702

In Assembly Resolution 70 you asked me to contact the State of Kentucky and other states to inquire whether they would be willing to trade fuel oil for gasoline. I raised the question with the Governor of Kentucky, and with the Fuel Allocation people from Illinois and South Carolina, and was told that none of them had enough gasoline to meet their own needs, and that all were unwilling to make such a trade. None of them or the staff of the National Governor's Conference nor the people in FEO that I contacted knew of anyone who would be willing to make such a trade.

Sincerely,
STANLEY YORK
Director

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY (March 19, 1974)

JOINT SURVEY COMMITTEE ON TAX EXEMPTIONS

Assembly Bill 507

Public Policy Involved

This proposal would create a special exemption specifically for one particular commodity which would be unavailable to similarly situated sales. It is undesirable as public policy.

To committee on Taxation.

Assembly Substitute Amendment 1 to Assembly Bill 755

Public Policy Involved

In the Sprague-Dawley, Inc. v. Moore (1968), 37 Wis. 2d 689, 155 N. W. 2d 579, the Supreme Court that raising research animals is not "farming" in the ordinary meaning of the word. Since such an operation does not qualify for the existing farm exemption, granting them a specific exemption would merely create a limited special interest tax benefit. Accordingly, this bill is undesirable as public policy.

To committee on Taxation.

Assembly Bill 470

Public Policy Involved

Automobiles, even if owned by a common carrier company, are excluded from this classification and consequently, are subject to the sales tax. Since it would provide a special exemption for taxicab companies not available to other common carriers which also use automobiles to transport persons or property for hire, this bill is undesirable public policy.

To committee on Taxation.
