MOTION UNDER JOINT RULE 26

The State of Wisconsin * * * Citation by the Legislature

Know you by these presents:

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY (March 29, 1974)

Whereas, Stan Hinkley, Ponaka, Alberta, has provided the University of Wisconsin hockey program with one of its finest captains, as he showed outstanding courage in the face of great adversity during the 1973-74 season;

Whereas, his swift flights down the ice have contributed a great deal to the scoring proficiency of the Badgers during the past four years (31 goals and 31 assists for 62 points);

Whereas, Stan's quality performance was epitomized by his being named to the NCAA All Tournament Team in Boston and his being named the most improved player on the 1972-73 Badger squad; now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Representatives Giese and Oberle and Senator Bidwell under Joint Rule 26, commend Stan Hinkley for his dedication and devotion in achieving his academic studies in pre-dentistry: providing Wisconsin hockey fans with a smooth, consistent performance every time he stepped onto the ice; and providing the inspirational leadership necessary to lead the 1973-74 team to a very good season.

MOTION UNDER JOINT RULE 26

The State of Wisconsin * * * Citation by the Legislature

Know you by these presents:

Whereas, Billy Reay, Jr., son of Chicago Black Hawk Coach, Billy Reay, and a native of Chicago, Illinois, has provided the University of Wisconsin hockey program with one of the strongest skaters and shooters the Coliseum has ever seen;

Whereas, his four year total of 35 goals and 22 assists (57 points) provided Wisconsin hockey fans with more than its share of clutch goals that propelled the Badgers to many of their memorable victories;

Whereas, his most memorable series as a senior probably occurred at the University of North Dakota when he scored three of his nine season goals; now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Representative Giese and Senator Bidwell under Joint Rule 26, commend Billy Reay, Jr., for providing Wisconsin hockey fans with countless thrills, for his dedication and devotion in achieving his academic studies in Pharmacy; and for his willingness to adapt to the many roles Coach Johnson called upon him to fill.

MOTION UNDER JOINT RULE 26

The State of Wisconsin * * * Citation by the Legislature

Know you by these presents:

Whereas, David "Smokey" Arundel has provided the University of Wisconsin Hockey program with one of its finest defensemen, as he anchored the University of Wisconsin blue-line corps that only gave up 3.8 goals per game, third best in the WCHA, during his senior year.

Whereas, his ready smile and humor belie the seriousness of his intense dedication as he continually strives for excellence;

Whereas, Dave's quality performance was exemplified by his being named to the 2nd NCAA Tournament team in 1972-73; now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Representative Giese and Senator Bidwell under Joint Rule 26, commend David "Smokey" Arundel for the 19 points (9 goals and 10 assists) that he scored in 1973-74; for conducting himself as a gentleman and reflecting credit on his wife, Shari, his parents, his team and the University of Wisconsin; and for his willingness to dedicate his life to a career of Christian youth counseling.

MOTION UNDER JOINT RULE 26

The State of Wisconsin * * * Citation by the Legislature

Know you by these presents:

Whereas, the 1973-74 University of Wisconsin Hockey team played before a total home attendance of 168,438 for a 8,422 per game average and thus establishing a new collegiate record;

Whereas, the 1973-74 season record of 18-13-5 overall and 12-11-5 in WCHA was highlighted by nine overtime contests, fourteen games decided by one goal, and a narrowness in defeat that was often times agonizing, but always challenging;

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY (March 29, 1974)

Whereas, the 1973-74 squad was led by a talented and dedicated quartette of seniors--Captain Stan Hinkley, Gary Winchester, Billy Reay, and David "Smokey" Arundel;

Whereas, Coach Bob Johnson and Assistant Coach Bill Rothwell have assembled a fine group of young men that captured the Big Ten Hockey title for the third straight year highlighted by two wins and two ties against NCAA Champion Minnesota;

Whereas, the 1973-74 team was lead in scoring by the incomparable tandem of Dennis Olmstead (22 goals and 26 assists for 48 points) and Dean Talafous (17 goals and 29 assists for 46 points); now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Representative Giese and Senator Bidwell under Joint Rule 26, commend the 1973-74 University of Wisconsin Hockey Team for an unexcelled season of thrills and excitement; commend the coaching staff headed by Bob Johnson for developing a group of dedicated young men of which the University of Wisconsin can be justly proud; and congratulate the loyal Badger fans for making their presence felt in every hockey rink throughout the WCHA and loyally supporting the nation's Number One Collegiate Hockey Program.

MOTION UNDER JOINT RULE 26

The State of Wisconsin * * * Citation by the Legislature

Know you by these presents:

Whereas, Gary Winchester, Calgary, Alberta, has provided the University of Wisconsin hockey program with one of its most prolific scorers, chalking up 163 points on 83 goals and 80 assists in an illustrious four year career;

Whereas, Gary, in his quiet and unassuming way, has provided the inspirational leadership necessary in the 1973-74 season to fill in for the disabling injuries to teammates and playing with a nagging, painful injury himself;

Whereas, his seven career hat tricks and the fact that he has established himself as the career WCHA scoring leader during his stay at Wisconsin with 53 goals and 53 assists for a total of 106 points, places him third on the Badger all-time scoring list (163 points);

Whereas, Gary's play has always been personified by a clean, graceful style that exemplifies individual excellence and a leadership quality that brings out a superior performance in his teammates; now, therefore,

The Members of the Wisconsin Legislature, on the motion of Representative Giese and Senator Bidwell under Joint Rule 26, commend Gary Winchester for his dedication and devotion in achieving his academic studies in geology, providing Wisconsin Hockey fans with countless thrills and always conducting himself as a gentleman and reflecting credit on his parents, his team, and the University of Wisconsin.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS AT 2:01 P.M. ON FRIDAY, MARCH 29

Assembly Bill 1576

AN ACT to appropriate $75,000 from the general fund for payment of a claim by Robert L. Borum against the state.

POINT OF ORDER

Representative Sensenbrenner rose to the point of order that Assembly Bill 1576 was not properly before the assembly under Assembly Rule 28.

The speaker ruled the point of order not well taken because Assembly Bill 1576 was under consideration by a suspension of the rules.

Representative Sensenbrenner appealed the ruling of the chair.

The question was: Shall the ruling of the chair stand as the judgement of the assembly?

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY (March 29, 1974)

The roll was taken.

Motion carried.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Representative Nager asked unanimous consent for a leave of absence for the balance of today's session for himself. Granted.

POINT OF ORDER

Representative Niebler rose to the point of order that Assembly Bill 1576 was not properly before the assembly because the claim must first be considered by the State Claims Board under 16.007 Wisconsin Statutes.

The speaker ruled the point of order not well taken because the language of the bill on page 1, line 5 states "Notwithstanding section 16.007 (1) of the statutes," and if enacted would exempt the claim from consideration by the claims board.

The question was: Shall assembly amendment 1 to Assembly Bill 1576 be adopted?

Motion carried.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY (March 29, 1974)

Representative Shabaz moved indefinite postponement of Assembly Bill 1576.

The question was: Shall Assembly Bill 1576 be indefinitely postponed?

POINT OF ORDER

Representative Niebler rose to the point of order that Assembly Bill 1576 was not properly before the assembly because the bill did not contain a fiscal note under 13.10 Wis. Statutes and Joint Rule 24.

The speaker ruled the point of order not well taken because the purpose of 13.10 was to provide cost information to members of the legislature and the bill as amended clearly provided for an appropriation of $20,000, thereby complying with the intent of the law.

Representative Shabaz asked unanimous consent that Assembly Bill 1576 be laid on the table.

Representative Conta objected.

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY (March 29, 1974)

Representative Shabaz moved that Assembly Bill 1576 be laid on the table.

POINT OF ORDER

Representative Wilcox rose to the point of order that the bill was not properly before the assembly because a claim had not prepared in duplicate and filed in the office of the secretary of the Department of Administration as provided in 16.53(8) Wisconsin Statutes.

The speaker ruled the point of order not well taken because 16.53(8) referred to procedures for claims submitted to the state claims board and did not apply to Assembly Bill 1576.

Representative Wilcox appealed the ruling of the chair.

The question was: Shall the ruling of the chair stand as the judgement of the assembly?

JOURNAL OF THE ASSEMBLY (March 29, 1974)

The roll was taken.
