STATE OF WISCONSIN

Senate Journal

Eighty-First Regular Session

THURSDAY, March 29, 1973.

9:00 A.M.

The senate met.

The senate was called to order by the president of the senate.

Prayer was offered by Reverend Robert L. Westenbroeck, Pastor of Geneva Campus Chapel, Madison.

Eternal Father, thank you that you govern us by your love. Help us to govern ourselves and others in the same way. Thank you, Father, for the powers that man has at his disposal, and yet we know that these powers are a mixed blessing, because of their possibilities for evil. Do not let us be afraid of them for that reason: help us to reassert our mastery over them.

We think of the power of the nations of the world, of events out of our control that seem to rule us. Father, help us to see how national power can be wielded for the fulfillment of your will.

We think of the power of economic systems. Often we feel enmeshed in a system which is not fair and yet cannot be changed without causing immense hardship. Father, help us to become masters of economic forces and to order them for the purpose of justice.

We think of the power of governments. They now touch our personal lives at so many points. Father, may we as politicians and civil servants use our powers responsibly and respect the rights of individuals. Give our constituents the courage to challenge us when we are wrong, and willingness to share in the processes of government themselves. May the power of governments everywhere be used for the good of all.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (March 29, 1973)

Father, yours is the ultimate power. We see evidence of it everywhere in the world of things and men, but most of all in Jesus Christ. In Him we see the power of your love: weakness and death did not destroy Him and you raised Him from death. May that same power of love be in us. Thank you that it can be through Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior, Amen.

The senate remained standing and president of the senate led the senate in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.
