

STATE OF WISCONSIN
Senate Journal
Eighty-First Regular Session

TUESDAY, May 8, 1973.

10:00 A.M.

The senate met.

The senate was called to order by the president of the senate.

Prayer was offered by Father James Erwin, Associate Pastor of Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church of Madison.

Almighty God, may we stand now not just because it is customary to begin with a prayer. Make us stand these few moments and face our consciences. We are here for only one reason - to make the State of Wisconsin a better community.

Please give us today.

First, light to see what is really right for our people.

Secondly, the courage to speak and vote with conviction. Amen.

The senate remained standing and the president of the senate led the senate in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

The roll was called and the following senators answered to their names:

Senators Bablitch, Bidwell, Chilsen, Devitt, Dorman, Frank, Hollander, Johnson, Kasten, Keppler, Knowles, Knutson, Krueger, LaFave, LaFollette, Lorge, McKenna, Martin, Murphy, Parys, Peloquin, Petri, Risser, Roseleip, Schuele, Steinhilber, Swan, J.D., Swan, M., Theno and Thompson -- 30.

The Honorable William P. Nugent
Chief Clerk
Senate of the State of Wisconsin
Madison, Wisconsin

Dear Mr. Nugent:

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (May 8, 1973)

I am deeply grateful for the kind sentiments conveyed in the Resolution adopted by the Wisconsin State Legislature about the settlement we have achieved in Vietnam. A long and difficult testing of the national spirit has come to an end, and now we must work together to build a peace that lasts, a peace that heals. With your support, this great task can begin so that the next generation of Americans will know only peace.

With my appreciation and best wishes.

Sincerely,

RICHARD M. NIXON

RULING OF THE CHAIR

On Wednesday, May 2, 1973, Senator Risser raised the point of order that Senate Bill 227 required a fiscal note. The chair took this point of order under advisement.

Wisconsin Statutes section 13.10 (2) (a) states that:

“any bill making an appropriation and any bill increasing or decreasing existings appropriations or state or general local government fiscal liability or revenues shall, before any vote is taken thereon by either house of the legislature if the bill is not referred to a standing committee, or before any public hearing is held before any standing committee or, if no public hearing is held, before any vote is taken by the committee, incorporate as a note a reliable estimate of the anticipated change in appropriation authority or state or general local government fiscal liability or revenues under the bill, including to the extent possible a projection of such changes in future biennia...”

Senate Bill 227 requires that all males between the ages of 16 and 25, who are sentenced to prison terms for over one year, be placed first at the Wisconsin State Reformatory at Green Bay.

Presently, both Waupun State Prison and the Green Bay Reformatory are used as reception centers in the correctional system. Should this bill pass, there will be an obvious increase in the number of offenders sent to Green Bay for reception purposes, an obvious need for additional staff, and possibly a need for additional space. An obvious decrease will be necessitated in the programs and staffing at Waupun State Prison. Because of the very apparent change in program activities and staffing patterns in the correction system, which may affect the state appropriation, the question of the requirement of a fiscal note to this bill was taken under advisement by the chair.

In order to determine whether or not this bill falls under the categories specified under section 13.10, a request was made of the State Bureau of Planning and Budget to explain the possible fiscal effects of Senate Bill 227. The response for the information is attached hereto and made a part of this ruling.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (May 8, 1973)

State of Wisconsin
Department of Administration

May 7, 1973

The Honorable Martin Schreiber
Lieutenant Governor
State Capitol
Madison, Wisconsin

Dear Lieutenant Governor Schreiber:

This is in response to your inquiry about Senate Bill 227 and its possible fiscal effect. Our department has reviewed the bill and would estimate that it could very well increase costs in our correctional system in a number of ways:

Since the Green Bay Reformatory is presently at almost full capacity, any large influx of inmates for reception purposes could require additional staff at the Reformatory. Presently, the adult, male admissions average between 90 and 100 per month, which would, depending on the length of stay at the Reformatory, cause an overcrowding of facilities and a possible need for new facilities to handle such a large influx of inmates.

Presently, both the Waupun State Prison and the Green Bay Reformatory are used as reception centers in the correctional system. By requiring that all males between the ages of 16 and 25, who are sentenced to prison terms for over one year, the amount of transferring between institutions would increase, having a concomitant effect on costs within the correctional program.

The Legislature is presently considering a new youthful offenders program for Wisconsin. As you know, a bill was passed in the 1971 session which was vetoed by the Governor, and since that time the Governor has prepared a new proposal creating a youthful offenders program, which is presently before both the State Assembly and the State Senate. Assuming the new youthful offenders program were in effect, this bill (SB 227) would be contradictory. By requiring all males between 16 and 25 sentenced to over one-year terms to the Green Bay Reformatory for reception purposes, an additional cost would be incurred by then transferring those males to a youthful offenders institution at some other location.

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE (May 8, 1973)

These observations would indicate that Senate Bill 227 could have a substantial fiscal impact on the correctional program in Wisconsin. A detailed fiscal note might be useful in dealing with these questions on a more detailed level. Our department would be willing to cooperate in the preparation of a fiscal note for Senate Bill 227, if requested by the Legislature.

Sincerely,
RICHARD I. PETERSON
Chief Budget and
Program Planning Section

Based on the report of the Bureau of Planning and Budget, it is the chair's position that Senate Bill 227 falls within the purview of Wisconsin Statutes section 13.10 and therefore, pursuant to law, requires a fiscal note.

Respectfully submitted,
MARTIN J. SCHREIBER
Lieutenant Governor

Senator Petri appealed the ruling of the chair.

Senator Petri moved a
